L.H.S. Band:

Winter Band Concert

The L.H.S. band performed their Winter Band Concert Dec. 21 in the high school cafetorium. They have been practicing everyday since football season in band and at noon hours.

Songs that the band played were "Burst of Flame", "Born Free", "A Westchester Overture", "March of the Toys", "March of the Magnificent", "Promenade in Swingtime", and "Joy to the World".

Since "Charleston" was the band's favorite song during football season, they played it again that night. Genny Towne directed the band for this march while the baton twirlers showed the routing they made up.

For "The Thunderer", Mr. Powell had a person from each section play a certain part to show the contrasting music in the march. To get everyone in a Christmas mood, they ended the concert with "A Merry Christmas".

Now that Christmas vacation is over, the band is preparing for Solo and Ensemble Festival.

Notice to all Students who haven't paid bills before taking exams

All students' bills must be paid before taking exams.

Where was everyone?

On January 3, 1972, there was to be supposedly, an "Age of Majority" meeting in the high school cafetorium, for 18 to 20 year old students and their parents.

Due to either lack of interest or being uninformed about this meeting, only two persons showed up. The speaker (Mr. Ford) and his reporter.

an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure

The FNA has been studying alcoholism, its causes, and cures. To further their understanding of the subject, the class has been watching films and discussing subjects related to alcoholism.

The whole class is planning to visit the Mt. Pleasant State Home in the near future.

Ski Club was started a couple weeks ago, with sponsors Mrs. Nelson and Miss Bergen. The President is Matt Marshall. They've been selling raffle tickets for the last two weeks. A season pass for the rest of the basketball games was raffled off. Carol Dye won the pass.

Ski Club is arranging a "ski-night" every Wednesday night.

ANNUAL STAFF

Annual Staff members have been working very hard on the 1972 annual. They have already completed one-third of the annual. The annuals will be going on sale soon. Buy one from any staff member.

EDITORIAL: the dawning of the Age of Majority

As most of you know many of our students here at LHS gained several rights January 1. This is nice for those of you who are 18-21, but for those of you who are not yet 18 it could mean trouble. For example take driving. This Age of Majority bill has given 18 year olds the right to purchase and consume alcoholic beverages. This means there are going to be even more drunk drivers on the roads that you are going to have to watch out for. Course it does make things a little easier on the parents. If they want some wine or a six pack they can send their kid in for it. Also the 18 year olds can go out and buy a car or get insurance on their own and they can have the car put in their own name. Remember those of you who are 18 or older don't mix driving and drinking, and those of you who are not yet 18 remember to watch out for the ones who are and may be mixing driving and drinking.

POET'S CORNER:

AW SHUCKS, MR. FERD

Hi, my names Ernie
And I got me a girl named Sally Sue.
Me and Sally Sue is buddys.
Ever'body understands that,
"Cept fer Mr. Ferd and Mr. Burny.
The old fuddy duddys.

Every afterneon me and Sally don't feel like eatin' no food
So we jest go to our special corner by the lockers, and . . . and . . . well you know what we do.

Well, can't a feller kiss his girl when he feels like it?
Mr. Ferd don't think so.
He says it ain't respectin'
Fer a girl and feller, like me and Sally Sue,
Ta stan' around cuddlin' up and cheek peckin.

Well anyways he says he don't want no more of it.
Says if he catches me agin,
He's gonna lock me up and throw away the key.
Aw shucks, it ain't gonna be hard fer me ta stop.
I'm jist worryin 'bout how Sally Sue's gonna take it.
That girl just can't keep her hands off a me!

Strange Creatures Raviatad

THE ARDENT CLOCK WATCHER (Timerius Ticketockus)

As the name implies, this is a creature who must have constant reference to time. At all times it carries no fewer than fourteen wristwatches, eight pocket watches, two hourglasses, and a sundial. If you dare get close to it, you may notice hour hands in its eyes before it shouts you off with the phrases, "Que hora es?", "Quelle heure est-il?", "Wieviel Uhr ist es?"...all meaning, "What time is it?", the only thing it can say. In class his eyes are fixed on one thing: the girl in the---er, I mean---the clock on the wall. It sleeps very little, for every five minutes it wakes up to see what the time is. Although it gets so little sleep, it is not becoming extinct. In fact, its numbers increase greatly around three o'clock. A truly remarkable creature!!!!

THE QUIZZICAL QUOTER (Mumblea Muchae)

This creature can say nothing on its own, only what others have said before him. You say, "Hello." It says, "O, how full of briars is this working-day world!" You say, "What's new?" It says, "Stew cranberries like applesauce until your face turns gray." You have a headache by this time, so you say, "Do you have an aspirin or a calomel?" It says, "I'd walk a mile for a cal-

Girls Basketball:

Girls in Tears of Joy!

The Lakeview Girls J.V. Basketball team got their first taste of victory by defeating Central Montcalm's J.V.'s by a score of 23 to 22.

The game was very close, with Lakeview never trailing by more than four points and Central Montcalm never trailing by more than 3 points. In the last twenty seconds of the game, Lakeview scored the final basket, to put them ahead by one point.

Brenda Dishong found the hoop to score sixteen points, and Nancy Jeppesen, along with the rest of the team, played an excellent defensive game.

Varsity

Although Lakeview's Girls Varsity team lost by a score of 67 to 7, they played a hard-fought game against the second-place Central Montcalm Hornets.

Interesting Half-Time Tonight

This Friday night during the J.V. half-time, 21 girls are performing dance-twirl routines. Thirteen girls comprise the junior team and will be twirling to "Go Away Little Girl." The senior team will be twirling to "She's a Lady." The girls are as follows: Renae Reichle, Brenda Schultz, Julie Stout, Jannean Warner, Penny Gummer, Dolinda Riley, and Judy and Tereasa Mitchol.

Come early. The girls will be twirling in bright colorful jumpsuits.

SENIOR INTERVIEWS

LuAnn Ball

The Greenville Memorial Hospital was the site of an exciting event on June 10, 1954. On this day LuAnn Ball was born.

LuAnn has worked hard scholastically during the past thirteen years. Her future plans include studying Pharmacy at Ferris State College for 5 years. After one year of internship, LuAnn plans on attending the University of Michigan to receive the degree of Doctor of Pharmacy.

LuAnn has several hobbies, but her most prized possession is her turtle collection. LuAnn often becomes very excited by her turtle named Quadrat Leopold, who is King of her bookcase.

LuAnn participates in many activities, but the most outstanding thing she has done in the past year is to sign up for Analytical Geometry without taking Trigonometry. However, LuAnn's pastime is "sitting around doing nothing".

Janet Beardslee

Janet Beardslee, one of this year's mighty Seniors, was born July 16, 1954, at Lakeview. Her future plans include marriage along with college at MCC where she will study to become a nurse. She considers Larry to be her most cherished possession. Snowmobiling with Larry is her favorite pastime. Janet's advice for next year's Seniors is: don't take chemistry!

Bruce Ackley

Bruce Lee Ackley was brought into our beautiful world on November the 15th in the year of 1954. He informed me that this magnificent feat was performed here in our own Kelsey Memorial Hospital.

Since Bruce has always lived in Lakeview, he has always attended our Lakeview schools.

When asked the funniest thing that has ever happened to him, he paused, then smiled and said, "The New Years Eve Party."

After another brief pause, he decided his most cherished possession is his girl, Kris.

In the future he plans to attend Ferris.

Annette Andersen

On May 27, 1954, born to Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Andersen was a bouncy baby girl. They named her Annette. She lives in the suburbs of Trufant. Annette has attended the Lakeview Community Schools ever since Kindergarten.

As a Senior, the thing of the past that she remembers most is her first (?)

When asked what her favorite song was, Annette replied, "I don't have one particular song; but I guess it would be Clementine."

When Annette graduates, her plans are to go to Ferris State College and major in X-ray technology.

Remember Mrs. Shearer??

Remember Mrs. Shearer, Mr. Hondorp's student teacher in biology last spring? She and her husband, Glenn, are now the proud parents of a 6 lb. 10 oz. baby girl born January 4.

If you would like to send a congratulations card, the address is: Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Shearer, RFD #4, Bryan, Ohio, 43506.

THE LONG LUNGED LINGUIST
(Talkingae si Talkingae)

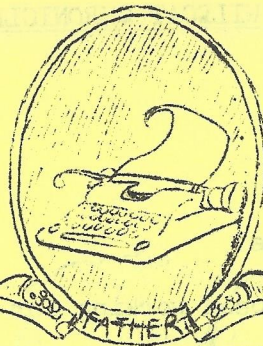

This creature can never wear glasses because if it did, they would forever be steamed over with the hot air that flows freely from its mouth. When these creatures are born and slapped on the behind, instead of crying, they give a lecture on the germs carried by the human hand. They are born politicians and lecturers who never stop talking until they leave "This vale of tears" (one of their favorite expressions). They usually die at an early age due to dehydration, with all their body's water being converted to steam.

FBLA OFFICERS INSTALLED

During a candlelight ceremony with Paula Butler acting as the installing official, the FBLA officers were installed with Debra Carlson, President; Genny Towne, Vice President; Donna Hubbard, Secretary; Alan Bennett, Treasurer; Holli Imhoff, Reporter; Dolinda Riley, Historian; and Penny Gummer, Parliamentarian.

After speeches were made by the officers on the ideals of the organization, the members -- Karen Goulet, Steve McCarthy, Lois Rent-schler, and Rhonda Brown-- were initiated by the President. Other members who were unable to attend are Dee Dee Davis, Annette Andersen, Beverly Gilbert, Debbie Sahlbom, Kathi Kam-radt, and Deb Snyder. Then the FBLA Creed was recited in unison. The Gavel was presented to the President and membership cards were passed out by Mrs. Hachman.

All businessmen of Lakeview were invited along with the Administration of the Lakeview Community Schools and the Board of Education. Dallas Lincoln, a local businessman and speaker for the evening, gave the FBLA members helpful tips on how to succeed in the business world.

A Dessert Banquet, with homemade "goodies", followed the ceremony and was enjoyed by everyone.

Guitar Lessons

Starting the first Monday in February, there will be a guitar class at noon-time. This will be a non-credit class and students must provide their own instruments. It will be taught by Mr. Terry Smith, a student-teacher at Lakeview. There will be a sign-up sheet in the office and students may start signing up January 24.

YES

Mr. Dick Brown of the Community education office has a new service for the people of this area. It is called YES (Youth Employment Service) and will provide youths of the area with part-time or one-time jobs to earn some money. It will also aid the homeowners and businessmen because these are the ones the young people will be working for.

So if you feel rich and want to hire someone to do such things as the dishes for you, your chores around the house or barn, or maybe even your homework, call Lakeview High School Monday through Friday at 352-7221 during the hours of 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. and 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Or if you are between the ages of 14 and 25 and are interested in signing up for potential work, call 352-7221 or see Mr. Brown or Mr. Cady.

Baby Shots

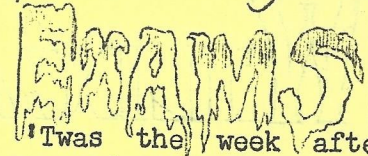

If you have any snapshots of your fellow classmates when they were little, bring them in and we'll use them under the "Remember These" pages in the 1972 yearbook. (Be sure, if you want them back, that you have your name on them.)

With Saranac and Greenville

The Lakeview Wildcats were busy this last week end as they played two games in two consecutive nights. On Friday, they traveled down to Saranac where they won their first away game by smashing the Redskins 90-62. Then they came back the next night only to lose to a fine Greenville Yellow Jacket team with a final score of 56-47.

Friday night the Wildcats started out slow, but by the end of the third quarter they got rid of their jitters and started to play the way they are capable of playing. The Cats actually won the game on the boards, as the big boys underneath out rebounded the Redskins--51-31.

Bob Guthrie had 13 rebounds and Kelvin Lutterloh had 11 rebounds for Lakeview. In the scoring department, the winners showed good balance--with Saul Morales, Kelvin Lutterloh, and Mike Lindsey all hitting double figures. They made 15, 21, and 16 points respectively. The win gives the Wildcats a 2-3 record in the league.

Saturday night the Greenville Yellow Jackets came to town ready to play a tough game. The Greenville team, the top team in their conference, came into the game with fine statistics. They have been averaging over 80 points a game and usually beating their opponents by over 15 points. But this was not to be, as the Cats played a mean defense, and they always had a hand in the shooter's face.

Although the defense was there, the Cats slowed down on offense and hit for a season's low of 46 points. The Cats started out with a bang and had the Yellow Jackets down 14-12 with time running out in the first quarter. However, the boys from Greenville hit two quick buckets to make it 16-14 as the buzzer sounded. Early in the second quarter, Dave Andresen got his 3rd personal foul and the Wildcats missed his hustle and rebounding. The Jackets then pulled out to a ten point lead of 31-21. After this the Cats could never catch the fleeting Yellow Jacket. The Wildcats lost the battle of the boards to the visitors with a score of 43-31.

Bob Guthrie had 12 rebounds, and Kelvin Lutterloh had 11 for Lakeview. Leading scorers for the Cats were Mike Lindsey with 19 points and Lutterloh with 19 points.

This week Lakeview will host the league's leading team--the Red Raiders of Portland High School. The battle may determine the league title. Please try to attend this 7 o'clock affair.

WRESTLING

Wednesday, January 5, the Lakeview wrestlers defeated Saranac 60-12. There were only 6 matches as Saranac forfeited 5 classes and Lakeview forfeited one. The match was quite exciting as everyone pinned their man or was pinned. The following is a brief summary: 100 Andy Marshall won on a forfeit. 107 Ruben Solis won on a forfeit. 114 Den Smith pinned Russ Smith, 4:42. 121 Dwight Poulson won on a forfeit. 128 Marty Rameriz pinned Greg Tullis, 4:19. 134 Pat Hillman won on a forfeit. 140 Bill McLaughlin pinned Tim Raison, 2:54. 147 Marty Marshall pinned Mark Weller, 1:43. 157 Phil Temple won on a forfeit. 169 Rick Sweet (S) pinned Doug Witmer, 2:24. 187 Dave Warner pinned Bruce Ellison, 2:47. Hwy Ron Gilmore (S) won on a forfeit.

Then that Saturday, January 8, our grapplers attended the first annual Ravenna Wrestlersrama. Although there were some tough teams there our wrestlers fought to a championship and brought a trophy back with them. Ten Lakeview wrestlers received awards as the grapplers fought their way to the top. 100 Andy Marshall won 2 and lost 2 to take a fourth place. 134 Pat Hillman also finished fourth with a 2-2 record. 187 Doug Whitmore won 1 and lost 2 and was also a fourth (cont. next column) place finisher. 107 Felix Perez pinned twice and lost on a dec. on his way to a second place. 114 Den Smith took a second place with a 2-1 record. 121 Dwight Poulson pinned twice and lost on a 4-2 dec. and took second place. 128 Marty Rameriz with a 2-1 record took a second. 140 Curt Dishong fought his way to second place by pinning twice and losing 6-3 in the finals. 147 Marty Marshall pinned three times on his way to a championship. 169 Den Fankhauser pinned once and won two dec. and also was a champion.

It seemed though, that our wrestler's success would not follow them to Central Montcalm where they lost 39-12. This defeat puts Lakeview in a tie for first in the league. (Our league record now stands at 3-1.) This is a summary of the match:

100 Andy Marshall and Eddie Blackmer battled to a draw. 107 Felix Perez dec. Craig Tester. 114 Den Smith dec. Tom Landers, 4-2. 121 Larry Sinclair (CM) dec. Curt Dishong 8-2. 140 Clyde McCallister (CM) dec. Bill McLaughlin, 5-0. 147 Doug Ryan (CM) pinned Phil Temple, 1:20. 157 Nelson McGrumb (CM) dec. Marty Marshall, 3-0. 169 Den Fankhauser dec. Lee Soule, 6-0. 187 Greg King (CM) pinned Doug Witmer, 1:32. Hwy Mike Studley pinned Dave Warner, 1:59.

Stanley Bellinger

On February 27, 1954, a world shaking (?) event occurred in Big Rapids. Stanley Bellinger was born! Now he is one of our great Seniors at LHS. Some of his favorite things are as follows: favorite pastime—being with Annie, favorite food—pizza, and favorite saying— "If you don't take care of it, it will get you." His most cherished possession is Mickey Mouse. His future plans are getting married. He said his most outstanding achievement is getting through high school. His advice to future Seniors is: "Don't get in trouble."

Kathleen Marie Blumberg

Kathy Blumberg was born May 28, 1954, at the United Memorial Hospital in Greenville. After graduation she plans to attend Kellogg Community College and become a Physical Therapy Assistant.

Kathy enjoys talking to her friends and considers the "top shelf" to be her most cherished possession. If she were given only one month to live Kathy says that she would try to see and do as much as she could. If there was any time left, she says she would probably start to clean off her locker door. When asked what period of history she would like to have lived during, she replied, "Probably at the beginning of the twentieth century. Everything was different than it had been earlier. People could become excited over things they just take for granted now (planes, cars, and space trips)."

Kathy would like to pass the following advice on to next year's Seniors: Have fun in your last year, but not so much that you forget the reason you're in school.

CYNTHIA (SUE) BROCKWAY!!!

Have you seen a girl by the name of Cynthia Sue Brockway running around LHS? Before you come in contact with her let me tell you a little something about her.

Cindy was brought into this world on March 19, 1954, at Kelsey Memorial Hospital. During her stay in the world for the past 17 years she's discovered very many exciting things that amuse her. You can find Cindy telling jokes in her spare time. When you ask her what her most cherished possession is, she'll say, "my white bomb." Her favorite drink is Harvey Wallbangers, and her favorite song is—Brand New Key.

Her two favorite past memories are when she fell in the sewer at church, and she said to ask Genry, Truck, Jake, or Annette about Halloween night "71!"

Cindy concludes with her future plans as going to MSU to be a professional student.

Deb Carlson

On November 12, 1954, Kelsey Memorial Hospital, brought into this world a bouncy baby girl called Deb Carlson.

Deb rates her favorite pastime as playing piano and organ. Her most cherished possession is memories. When asked if she could travel to any part of the world, where she would go, she chose Blanchard, she couldn't tell why though.

If some one gave her one hundred dollars she said she would probably put it towards college. Her future plans include Ferris State.

Marilyn Bennett

Marilyn was born on March 17, 1954 in Kelsey Memorial Hospital. Her favorite pastime, is doing goofy and stupid things with Kathy. Marilyn said, "my most cherished possession is, my mop and pail from the great "Oliver" cast, and my friends." She said, The one thing that she's done and would like to do again is go camping up north with no chaperons, just my girlfriend and myself. Marilyn's favorite song is, "Anticipation." Her favorite person is Mrs. Ruth Belmenwald. Marilyn's pet peeves are, people who judge you before they really get to know you, and kids who think it's funny to make fun of others. Her future plans are getting a job and taking life as it comes. Her advice to the class of "73" is, "you only have one more year so don't quit now."

BARBARA CHAPIN

On a balmy day, Barbara Chapin was born, September 11, 1953, at Kelsey Memorial Hospital in Lakeview. Maurice Chavlier was born the 12th.

Upon asking Barb if I could interview her she replied, "Now?" I replied, "When else?" After deep thought and concentration Barb commented that her favorite pastime is "being obnoxious." Of course, this is executed in a reserved manner.

There are many things that Barb doesn't find objectionable. These include her most cherished possession-Caroline Hayes outfit. The event that she recalls most ofte is Goldie Sobolack. She also likes operetta. In other words, performing in operetta and musical functions is time well spent.

Barb found it difficult to give any advice for underclassmen. The only word she offered was-"Yuk."

ARMEN BONDIE

On the snowy cold day of Jan. 27, 1954 in the state of Michigan a baby boy found his way into the world. His name was decided on and he came to be known as Armen Bondie. Through the years he found being with people to be a pastime, and lately his coat to be his most cherished possession. Recalling the past Armen recalls all the parties at Trufant last year. His future plans are to graduate with the class of 1972.

When the day of exams arrive, every student is armed with a book in one hand and two pencils in the other. He is out scouting the halls or library trying to find a quiet place to finish cramming.

Then comes the moment of truth. It is time for each student to take his two hour examination. The test is handed to the student whose face fills with fright. None of these questions look familiar.

After flipping back six pages of seven page test, he finally finds one question he can answer. He shouts, "Ah-ha! I found it!" This sudden outburst causes the teacher to have a puzzled look, but it gives the student encouragement to start back again at the beginning of the test.

When all the test papers are handed in, all students sigh with relief. However, now the teachers are unhappy, because of the many papers they must check. The poor teachers "burn the midnight oil" correcting papers with the use of a magnifying glass to read the illegible handwriting. Finally, each teacher finishes marking report cards, and exams are over until next semester.

SOLO & ENSEMBLE FESTIVAL

The District 7 Solo and Ensemble Festival was held Saturday, January 29, at Nelson Junior High School in Muskegon. Eleven groups attended from Lakeview. The participants met at the school at 7:00 Saturday morning and were finally on their way by 8:30, due to a minor delay by their director.

Of the 33 students attending, 17 received a I rating. These students are Deb Beardslee, Deb Doran, Brian Jorgensen, Joe Childers, Mark Bunce, Ann Charnley, LuAnn Ball, Becky Nelson, Deb Gage, Genny Towne, Donna Hubbard, Patty Johnson, Rod Martens, Sharon Kinsey, Durene Moore, Phil Neinhuis, and Jamie Delamater. The 20 students receiving a II rating are Genny Towne, Donna Hubbard, Lu Ann Ball, Mary Youngman, Cande Johnson, Sharon Kinsey, Janet Blumberg, Diana LaDanyi, Dolinda Riley, Deb Gage, Ann Charnley, Tamea Clark, Dee Baker, Rick Moblo, Kevin Chapin, Don Swem, Joe Groce, Darla Lindsey, Gloria Shaw, and Barb Fleck. Only 1 group, consisting of Cindy Gale and Cindy Stout, received a III rating.

After the final group had played that afternoon, the students met in the cafeteria, then started their return trip to Lakeview with a stop at McDonald's on the way. They arrived home around 7:45 that night.

The groups that received a I rating will be attending the State Solo and Ensemble Festival at Kellogg Community College in Battle Creek on March 25. In the meantime, the band is busily practicing for the Band Festival coming up on March 11.

F.N.A. a visit to ferris

The FNA I class is planning on going to Ferris State College on February 15. Mrs. Paulen, Mrs. Grassly, and Mrs. Chisham will accompany the girls. The future nurses will tour the college and will receive talks on Ferris' nursing program.

Correction, Please.

There is a small correction on the article about the Youth Employment Service. It was stated in the last issue of the Chronicle that the YES was a program of Mr. Brown's. This is not exactly true. It is a program from the Office of Economic Opportunity for Montcalm and Gratiot Counties. Mr. Brown is only lending a helping hand in finding the workers.

Mr. Brown also says that the second semester "Enrichment Classes" on "Learn for Fun" will be starting the week of February 7.

= COUNSELING =

The counselors request that any Senior who wants to apply for a scholarship should do so very soon--at least by March 1, 1972. Scholarships are available to Senior boys who are good students in Industrial arts or are planning on studying industrial arts. Also, any boy who is a blood son of a veteran might be eligible for a VFW Scholarship. If you are interested in any of these scholarships see your counselor very soon.

editorial: Do we really need Exams?

Now that the semester exams are over, perhaps it's time to examine the real values of these tests. The original idea of exams seems to have been to evaluate the actual amount of knowledge acquired through eighteen weeks of study. This aim now appears to be obscured behind a multitude of other goals.

Many of the facts one is tested on will have no real value in later life and are just memorized for exams. Some instructors use exams to discover how many trivial points from their daily lectures a student has forgotten. Some exams we take don't measure what you've really learned and your ability to apply this material to practical applications; instead, they measure how well one is able to cram facts during the week prior to exams. Couldn't exams be geared to measure the actual value one has received from a class? Instead of allowing an entire grade to hang on one exam, couldn't we have a gradeless exam, privately evaluated by student and teacher?

An Interview with Wm. Shakespeare

Interviews are very common these days, so our roving reporter roved back in time and returned with the one and only William Shakespeare. This is how that interview went.

Interviewer: How are you Mr. Shakespeare?

Shakespeare: Never shake thy gory locks at me!

Int: I'm sorry. Do you mind if I call you Will?

Sha: What's in a name.

Int: I guess I shall call you Will. My first question is, what do you think of our president, Mr. Richard M. Nixon?

Sha: God made him, and therefore let him pass for a man.

Int: That's quite a bad thing to say. Do you have any reasons to say that?

Sha: I have none but a woman's reason: I think him so because I think him so.

Int: Is that so? Tell me, Will, what do you think about his economic policies?

Sha: Every one can master a grief but he who has it.

Int: You think you can do better under all of the pressures he has? Do you want to be president?

Sha: I'd rather be a dog and bay the moon.

Int: You sound harsh.

Sha: I am as you know me, a plain, blunt man.

Int: Let's change the topic of discussion. Do you have a favorite beverage you like to drink?

Sha: Old fashions please me best.

MATH-SCIENCE NEWS

On Friday, December 18, 1971, the Math-Science club held a meeting after school in Mr. Boerma's room. The presentation was done by Don Swem. Don gave an interesting presentation on the planets. At the end of the meeting, the plans for the Christmas Party were made, and it was decided to invite old members of the club.

On Friday, January 21, 1972, the club held another meeting. This week, the members had the brief topic of Issac Newton and his laws of motion, as presented by David Middleton.

Int: Do you mind if I ask you a personal question?

Sha: In nature's infinite book of secrecy a little I can read.

Int: Have you ever been in love?

Sha: I had rather have a fool to make me merry than experience to make me sad.

Int: I take that for a yes. Could you describe her to the readers?

Sha: Age cannot wither her, nor custom stale her infinite variety.

Int: What do you do when you take her out on dates?

Sha: We burn daylight.

Int: Not being rude to change the subject, but...

Sha: How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless child.

Int: I'm sorry again.

Do you have anything to add?

Sha: The rest is silence.

Int: O.K. then. What would you say made you as great as you are today?

Sha: Some are born great, some achieve greatness, and some others have greatness thrust upon them.

Int: Thank you for coming out of slumber for this interview. That's about all for now.

Sha: Reputation, reputation, reputation. I have lost the immortal part of me and the rest is bestial!

Int: Thank you for that last comment, but we must say good bye.

Sha: O God, that men should put an enemy in their mouths to steal their brains!!!!!!

Int: Thank you very much for everything. Why don't you put this in a book!

Sha: TO BE OR NOT TO BE

Nicky Cruz to Appear at Montabella in April

Nicky Cruz, author of Run Baby Run, and the main character of the famous The Cross and the Switchblade will appear at the Montabella High School gymnasium April 13, 14, and 15, 1972, as part of his nation-wide crusade.

Nicky is a nation-wide figure, but he is most famous in Brooklyn, New York, where he spent the early years of his life as the leader of the maw maws, the most feared gang in Brooklyn, consisting of 205 boys, 75 girls. Nicky became a Christian through the influence of Davie Willison, author of The Cross and The Switchblade. He travels around the world speaking to young people of his faith and commitment. He also works closely with Art Linkletter in his fight against drugs.

All are invited to come to the crusade. There will be no charge. However, the cost of the crusade will be around $3,000 so contributions will be welcome.

The schedule following is of the rallies and movies which will be a part of the area Nicky Cruz Crusade:

WHAT RADIO ON THE AIR

What? A radio station at LHS? That's right. Station W.H.A.T. has been operating through the office intercom for nearly a month to "spice up" the morning announcements. The station has had many good results, considering that few of the participants have had any experience in broadcasting.

At 9:10 each weekday, the staff technician turns on the microphone and each segment is sent over the airwaves: The daily sports report, Bird and Worm look at the weather, Count Igor chews over the Menu; and, the staple of the show, the morning announcements. They also have the closest thing to a serial in their 'continuing saga of Godfrey Wigglesforth and the Purple Passion in 'As the Worm Turns.' All this is wrapped up by 9:20.

What's in store for the future? W.H.A.T. hopes to expand to noon hours and add some special taped interviews; possibly go on the air for real.

Stay tuned for further developments.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Students interested in earning money through part-time sales work on their own time see Mr. Brown or Mr. Ford.

editorial:

Cheer—no matter what

I have noticed lately at the games when our team is behind or way ahead everyone stops cheering. They only cheer when the game is close in the last half. A few games ago when our team had a big lead, everyone stopped cheering, the team fell apart, and we lost. At present, we are in fourth place. This is no reason to think we have a bad team. We just have had some bad breaks. The lack of spirit in our school does not help it, either.

The last several years LHS has been a strong competitor for first place. This year we have met some very strong teams which means our team needs more support than ever. There are only four more basketball games this season, two of which are home games, so let's all yell and back our team!

Many people make faulty use of the English language. Ain't that so?

How many times have you tried to converse with an English teacher without breaking into a cold sweat? You know that he (or she) is just waiting for you to say "to" when you mean to say "too" or "weather" when you mean to say "weather" so she (or he) can correct you. English teachers are like that. Use "whom" out of context and they'll have a field day. It's enough to make a purse out of a sow's ear, if that is your idea of a good time.

The English language is made up of Latin, German, some Anglo-nonsense, Greek, and Yittish. No wonder it is so hard for Americans to learn! They've never had any experience with it.

But why worry about it? We can improve our English merely by saying a few common phrases of it each day. Start by saying, "I shall speak good English." Before you know it, you'll be saying, "I will speak good English," and finally, "O, crud!"

Now steal a pencil from somewhere and jot down the number of times you have made these mistakes in your grammar (or is it gramma?)

(At the Dentist's) Oh, I don't need any pain-killer.

I shouldn't ought to have went.

Ist das nicht ein richt? Sure I'll sign. What is it?

SPORTS

-LAKEVIEW-

Cats against Mustangs

Last Saturday night the Montabella Mustangs invaded Lakeview in quest of their sixth league victory. Instead they had to travel back east with a 78-75 defeat, their 3rd in league action. Lakeview's record is just the opposite at 3-5.

It seems like everybody was hot Saturday, February 5, but nobody was hotter than our Wildcats as they jumped to a 16-11 first quarter lead. The second quarter was a long one as the clock stopped many times because of the great number of fouls that were called, but the "Cats stretched their half-time lead to 6 points 38-32. Even though the "Cats led at the half many people in the stands were still non-believers, so when the 3rd quarter started the Lakers stayed fired-up and kept even all the way. The score going into the final stanza was 58-51 with Wildcats still in the lead. Then came the 4th quarter and the lead dwindled to 3, people started thinking this was the end, that the ponies would now run over our boys, but we took it to them, and kept that 3 point lead for the margin of victory.

The victory was the first one over Montabella for the Seniors on the team as you might have told after the buzzer sounded, and everyone raced onto the floor. It was a big win for the cont'd next col.

"Cats and let's hope it carries on, and maybe we can bring home a district trophy and who knows what from there!

Leading scorers in Saturday's game were Bob Guthrie with 21, Dave Andresen with 18, and Kelven Lutterloh 12.

The Wildcats don't have any games this week but play two next week. Tuesday they play Chippewa Hills here, and Friday travel to Central Montcalm for a big league game.

A fat Tuesday on a Monday?

Happy Fat Tuesday! or in other words, Happy Mardi Gras to all French Club Members. The French Club will be having a Mardi Gras Banquet on Monday, February 28, at 6:00 p.m. The French Club members will dress up in costumes to represent the real Mardi Gras held every year in New Orleans. French food will be served at the banquet to give everyone a taste of "la cuisine franca-cis."

The French Club is producing a film entitled "Au Voleur". This film is being produced by the club's president, Jim Middleton. This movie will be a shortened version of the play "Au Voleur" that was put on by the French Club members at their Initiation Dinner. After the film is finished, the club plans on showing to the Student body at noon hours for a small admission charge.

GRAPPLERS WORKING HARD

This Tuesday our wrestlers were defeated by the Bulldogs 27-22. One man who really deserves recognition is Doug Witmer who pinned his opponet in 2:41. Other winners for Lakeview were Felix Perez, Marty Rameriz, Marty Marshall and Den Fankhauser. A summary of the match goes this way; 98 Joe Drummond (R)-pinned Ruben Solis 5:01, 105 Felix Perez dec. Jim Beechnau 5-4, 112 Kelvin French (R) dec. Den Smith 2-1, 119 Marty Rameriz dec. Dennis Dalga 13-1, 126 Dan Crawlwy (R) dec. Pat Hillman 21-, 138 Larry Olsen (R) dec. Ross Case 7-1, 145 Marty Marshall dec. Chuck Krepps 4-0, 155 Llyod Cogwell (R) pinned Phil Temple 1:29, 167 Den Fankhauser pinned Mike Sturtevant 3:47, 185 Doug Witmer pinned Rod Woods 2:41, Hwy. Gary Johnson pinned Dave Warner 2:19.

On Wednesday, our matmen were off to Saranac where they defeated the Redskins 54-21. The match had seven forfeits and 4 pins and was over in less than an hour. Marty Rameriz had the fastest pin of the night for Lakeview at 126-lb. class in 1:34. By pinning this man Marty now has enough points for his letter. Ruben Solis, Andy Marshall, Den Smith, Ross Case, and Doug Witmer all won on forfeits. The elite from Lakeview who pinned were Felix Perez, Marty Rameriz and Dan Fankhauser. The next match is with Central Montcalm. It is a home match. Be there!

STOP THE FIGHTING!

On Wednesday, February 9, 1972, two boys, Terry Speese and Pat Wills, started fighting savagely in the school's journalism room.

During the fight chairs and other numerous items, including Miss Pam Olsen, were knocked to the floor. Alan Bennett, a student, took the law into his own hands as he attempted to stop the fighting. But the fight was already out of Alan's control. Another onlooker from the class called Mr. Baker, Mr. Nam-inga's student teacher, to the scene. He finally broke up the brawl. Everyone then found out that the fight had stemmed from the fact that both guys had made a date with Pam for Friday night.

---EPILOG---

By now you've probably asked yourself, "Why would the Chronicle editors print such a descriptive story about violence in the classroom?" The fact is that the whole "brawl" was planned by Mrs. Hachman to introduce news reporting to the new students in her journalism class and to show that no two people will report exactly the same facts.

Having witnessed the fight, students wrote down all facts just as they remembered them. The preceding story was a composite of the facts as seen through the eyes of the members of the journalism class.

My private line is Big-elo 9-7734.

Sure, these little slips may not seem like much, but remember that Rome wasn't built in a day!

Those same English teachers who (or is it whom?) tell us about our many mistakes also tell us to use concise words. Just think of the last time you learned a concise word (awful hard, isn't it?) but were afraid to use it. So instead of saying, "canus lupus," you said, "aardvark," thinking it meant the same thing. Well, it don't.....er, doesn't.

MEN... SHOW YOUR LEGS

Legs! Legs! Legs!!!
Don't be terrified if you see pictures of hairy legs setting in the student lounge next week. It isn't a dismantled spider! It's 12 of our own teachers! Surprised? Don't be! Our teachers have legs too!

The F.H.A. is holding a "Hairy Legs" contest. The contestants are 12 of our own LHS teachers. The voters are you, the students. (You don't have to be 18 to vote in this election!) The pictures will be placed on canisters which will be setting in the student lounge at noon, the week of February 14. Voting is done by dropping a coin in the canister (or canisters) of your choice. One cent counts as one vote. Which leg, in your opinion, is the hairiest?

Pep Up

Last week was Pep Week. The Pep Club started the week off by having the students wear blue and gold on Tuesday; Wednesday was tennis shoes and white socks day; on Thursday the students were asked to wear something inside out; and on Friday, Pep Club members sold suckers.

Tuesday night, Pep Club held a banquet for the Senior Citizens of our area. They had a big turnout and the food was delicious.

LET'S HEAR IT

The cheerleaders have been working hard on their pom-pom routine. This one was the one they did during the half-time of the Varsity game last Friday night.

Did you notice the papers being passed out with the cheers on them? This way everyone could yell louder because they knew the words.

The game with Montabella was a good one! Our great players along with the students of L.H.S. backing them up, beat the Mustangs.

Keep up the good work and we'll win them all!!

Area tours Ferris State

On Tuesday, February 15, the FNA I class traveled to Ferris State College for a tour of the nursing, dental hygiene, dental technology, and optometrist classes. The tour was lead by the doctor of Pesticide Technology.

We found the tour a very interesting event though we had had a few exciting moments before we reached the campus.

We reached home safely with Mrs. Paulen, Mrs. Grassley, Mrs. Chisholm, and Cindy Brockway at approximately 4:30.

Great Books for Readers

ATTENTION: BOOK READERS

Monthly there will be a book list put in the school paper. The list will contain the students favorites, which will all be in the school library.

Give to the FHA

Our FHA has been on a money-making binge this past week. It all started on Monday with the hairy legs contest. The winner will be announced at an upcoming pep assembly. Friday, February 18, the FHA will have a bake sale. They will also sponsor the dance after the game on Friday, February 25. Let's all support our FHA at the bake sale and the dance!

CONGRATULATIONS ~ PEP CLUB ~

Dear Mr. Brown and members of Pep Club:

Just a few words in appreciation of the wonderful dinner and films you furnished for Senior Citizens meeting Tuesday evening, February 8th.

The meal was very delicious and the girls as waitresses would rate an A+.

The films were especially interesting. Our good state of Michigan and Alberta was enjoyed by me as I toured Alberta in 1957.

Respectfully,

The Freshmen Monday Party

The frosh finally had their night! It was postponed from last Saturday night because of the Lakeview vs. Montabella game, rescheduled for that night. It all began at 7:00, but sadly ended at 10:30.

The night consisted of dancing in the cafetorium, food in the Home Ec. room, and gymnastic activities in the gym. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Jonaitis, Mr. Boyd, Miss Freeland, and Steve Abbey.

Way to go, Frosh!

Meteorology with Math & Science Club

On Friday, February 11th, the Math and Science club held a meeting in Mr. Boerma's room. The meeting was well presented by Janice Knapp. The subject was on meteorology. Janice covered the physical and weather conditions. She also kept a record of weather conditions for the month of January.

To those lovers of M.C.C.

At 10:00 Monday there will be a representative from M.C.C. to talk to any interested Juniors or Seniors.

FREE BOOKS?

Many of you students were probably taught, in your younger years that borrowing without permission or with the idea of not returning the borrowed object is wrong. And if you ever tried it, you probably got the lecture of your life or punished pretty badly and heard those famous words "When I was your age, I..." Well, if you were to go into the library today and take inventory, you would soon learn that some of your fellow students never learned their lesson at all when they got spanked or lectured for taking things.

Mrs. Kos has been trying to keep a stock of the more popular paperbacks on hand, but it's beginning to look quite useless. Last semester alone, 5 or more books disappeared. A few of these books have been returned, but at present a majority of these books are still unaccounted for. If you have taken out any books without checking them out first, Mrs. Kos and her library helpers would appreciate it if you would bring these books back to the library.

FEATURE STORY: DO SOMETHING DUMB LATELY?

"If you were asked, 'What is the dumbest thing you've ever done in your life?' what would be your answer? Here are what several L.H.S. students and teachers said.

Julie Stout: When Debbie Charnley and I were kids and we paid Rich Kelly and Rick Buchholtz to give us rides on their horses.

Mr. Wood: When I tried to kill a rat with a pitchfork and he kept attacking me.

Linda Towne: When I cut my finger on a peanut.

Sue Molitor: When Genny stayed overnight with me and we caught the bedspread on fire with the lamp.

Mr. Hondorp: When I dislocated my shoulder while asleep in bed.

Ron Kinsey and Dan Larsen: When Ron slid off an icy curve so we just drove right on across the field.

Wendell Martin: Driving 105 down the freeway in Grand Rapids in "Wendell's Black Bomb."

Donna Hubbard: When I walked into Meijers with my pant legs rolled up.

Genny Towne: When I got a bean caught in my nose and didn't get it out for 3 days.

Jannean Warner: When I talked Gindy into asking an Edmore guy to pay off his $1.00 bet and he wasn't the guy she'd made the bet with.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Tuesday, February 15, the Chippewa Hills Warriors came to town looking for their first victory. But it was not to be as the Cats grubbed them 95-62.

The game was relatively unexciting with the Cats in control most of the way. The point total was the highest this season for Lakeview and the victory was their third in a row.

Leading scorers were Kelvin Lutterloh with 20, John Garcia with 16, and Mike Lindsey with 12.

The Wildcats are really starting to hit the hoop and look about ready for tourney action. Please help support our boys. They need your mouth!

SKI CLUB!!

THINKING SNOW! That's what the Lakeview Ski Club has been doing ever since Christmas. (Thanks to the snow vacations!)

The Ski Club has the capable leadership of officers with Matt Marshall as president, Mark Olsen, vice-president, Brenda VanNortwick, secretary-treasurer; and Mark Bunce, student council representative. Thirty-nine members make up the club. Eight of them are beginners and are all excited about the sport.

The club has been skiing at Brady's Hills Ski Area every Wednesday night, which is club night, for the past four weeks. The novices have been taking instructions and are starting to look like pro's and are excited about a planned day trip to one of many areas up north.

GAPPLERS!!

Wednesday, February 16, Lakeview was the host in a wrestling match against Central Montcalm. The Hornets came through with a 28-19 victory which gave them the league title.

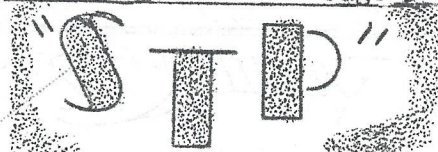

Summary of matches:

- 98 Ed Blackmer (CM) dec. Andy Marshall 1-0.
- 105 Felix Perez (L) pinned Craig Testor 5:12
- 112 Den Smith (L) dec. Swem 5-2.
- 119 Marty Ramirez (L) dec. Dan Johnson 2-0.
- 126 Jon Ryan (CM) dec. Pat Hillman 9-0.
- 132 John Drobish (CM) dec. Ross Case 17-1.
- 138 Clyde McCalister (CM) dec. Curt Dishong 7-0.
- 145 Marty Marshall (L) dec. Doug Ryan 5-3.
- 155 Nelson McCrumb pinned Doug Witmer 1:19.
- 167 Den Fankhauser (L) dec. Lee Saule 12-0.
- 185 Aaron Christensen (CM) pinned Phil Temple, 3:17
- HWD Mike Studley (CM) dec. Dave Warner 7-6.

JV "BASKETBALL"

Tuesday, Feb. 15, the Lakeview JV's defeated the JV's of Chippewa Hills by a score of 72-28. The leading scorers for the Kittens were: Kevin Griffith-12, Allan LaShell-10, and Rick Moblo-10. Griffith, Craig Brown, and Rick Dye were the leading rebounders. All the boys had a chance to play in the game.

The Kittens have an 11-3 record. They will play two tough teams from Central Montcalm and Cedar Springs within another week.

STP? No, SHP, which stands for State Home Project. The State Home Project is a group of Lakeview High School Students involved in helping the patients at the Mt. Pleasant State Home and Training School.

At Christmas time, the group delivered toys and games to the State Home and spent time visiting with the patients.

The groups' current project is a clothing drive. The State Home can use all sizes of new or used cotton clothing.

SENIORS URGED to Vote

John Engler, the state representative from this district, and John Williams, county youth chairman for the republican party, met with the senior class Wednesday. The purpose of the discussion during first and second hour was to get the senior classes in the county interested in the political system. Mr. Engler encouraged the seniors to get registered to vote in the presidential primary on May 16, at which time the precinct delegates will also be elected. The requirements to become a delegate are that you must be a registered voter and that you must have a petition signed by 15 or 20 other voters. Mr. Williams pointed out that only 7 of

STALE NEWS

Community Education and activities may be able to answer some items or needs that you, the student, may have. Let's explore together! Meet with Mr. Brown in Room 101 during lunch hour on Friday, February 18.

Ads for the Annual.

The Annual Staff, with the assistance of the Journalism class, are getting everything underway selling ads for the next years annual. The journalism class has been going down town about 3 times a week to get ads from the merchants in which we have been very successful in so far.

Also, if any of you students haven't bought or picked up your "71" annual yet would you please do so soon.

Books to be listed.

Starting next week, their will be a monthly book review and book list put in this paper for students who want to read some of the most popular read books as chosen by their classmates.

All books which will be in this review and the list also can be found in the "School Library."

GUITAR LESSONS

Guitar lessons primarily for the beginner will start soon if there is enough interest. We need at least 10 students and the cost will be $10.00 for 8 weeks, one night a week for 2 hours. If interested, stop by the Community Education office.

editorial:

*Every 'Cat Counts — no

team.*

If you were at the last Chippewa vs. Lakeview game, you might be aware of the fact that all of the Lakeview players, at one time or another, played in the game. As the second and third teams came in to play, there was a chuckle from the Lakeview Wildcat bench. It was almost unnoticable because of a very carefully placed hand over the face. But as you noticed, I said "almost unnoticable." To the onlookers, it did not seem like a very considerate thing to do. As far as I am concerned, one member of the team is just as important as another. Just because maybe the third team doesn't always get to play as much and maybe they aren't as good, doesn't mean that they don't try as hard as the others. It is also known to me that they practice just as much as the first team.

Fun with Frog Legs

Remember the fun you had around Christmas time putting batteries in your new goodies only to have them run down in ten hours? Ever wonder about that little battery? Huh? Well, it doesn't matter because you are going to hear about it anyway.

In some obscure little village in Italy stood an obscure little castle. In this obscure little castle labored an obscure little scientist named Luigi Galvani. One day, Lou was playing around with some frog legs on copper hooks. When he gave the legs a poke with his old iron scalpel, they twitched. Being the kind of man that he was, he related the twitch to animal electricity (It might be noted that Lou was quite a leg man. He was constantly trying them on for thighs.) Lou tried to market his discovery, but it was unsuccessful: nobody would eat frog legs after they'd been touched by an old scalpel.

Just across the road in the neighboring castle, a man named Alessandro Volta caught wind of Lou's discovery. This is easily understandable. It would be hard not to catch wind of frog legs after a week or so, especially if you're in the neighboring castle.

Volta didn't care for frog legs to begin with, being a meat-and-potato man himself (if you think you are lost now, you ain't

SPORTS

The Lakeview Wildcats ran their winning streak to 4 games Friday night with a very sound 88-69 shipping of the Central Montcalm Green Hornets.

It took the Cats a while to wake up, but when they did they buzzed the Hornets right off the court. Lakeview was behind at the end of the first quarter, but came back in the second stanza with a big 27 point quarter that gave them a 42-37 half-time lead. Then they came out for the second half and just kept hitting the bucket. Finally the Cat Power was too much for C.M. and they folded up and went to the showerroom.

"We just put it on 'em and cruised right by," the comment made by Dave Andresen, the big center of the Lakeview Wildcats.

Leading scorers in the game were Bob Guthrie 24, Kelvin Lutterloh 25, Mike Lindsey 18, and Dave Andresen with 13.

J.V.'s GAME

Last Friday, the Kittens lost to the JV's of Central Montcalm by a score of 66-60. The JV's just couldn't seem to put everything together. Steve Farrell was the high scorer with 21 points.

State Home Project

cont'd from page 1 col 1 will last until the end of next week. Be the largest contributor and win a free ticket to the Saranac game.

The Phych. Club started with bake sales; the proceeds of which provided funds for a Christmas shopping spree. Toys and games for the kids of the State Home were brought. The members of the club took the gifts up to the State Home after school. While there, the toured one of the cottages. A party for the young people is planned for the future.

took some copper wire, a loaf of bread, and some old issues of the New York Times and he built his own battery. Needless to say, this first attempt was a failure. Undaunted, he ate the bread and went on to Phase II. Here he took two rods of carbon and zinc and placed them in a vat of dilute sulfuric acid. He had spent many sleepless days working on this battery and now he had success in his very hands (roadmaps for the rest of this story are in the office).

What happened then? Well there was an earthquake in San Francisco, Charles Lindberg flew the Atlantic (although some say he flew the Spirit of St. Lewis), and Popeye beat up Brutus. Who can say more than words?

Volta's battery was replaced with the dry cell, which got its name because its contents weren't wet. They smelled like crazy, but they weren't wet (this is unusual...wet and smell usually go hand in hand). But, then, dry martinis are wet, so I guess that balances things out.

SENIOR ASSEMBLY

cont'd from page 1 col.1 of the 23 delegates seats have been taken and that that the 18-21 year olds should get involved by applying for one. Approximately one hour was spent asking questions on politics in general, and on certain important issues. The meeting concluded with everyone feeling that they should become more involved in local and national government.

Lakeview, Michigan

Kathy Blumberg --

"Miss Betty Crocker"

Kathy Blumberg, a Senior at Lakeview High School, has been recently named Lakeview High School's Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. Kathy received this honor as a result of her score on a test given last December. The test was given to any Senior girl who wished to compete for the award. Kathy will receive a specially designed charm from General Mills, the sponsor of this annual educational program. She is now eligible for state and national honors.

The band has been practicing recently for the upcoming District Band Festival, which is March 11 at Muskegon. Three arrangements will be played at this time. First we will play a march, "The Minstrels" by R.W. Bowles. The second will be the festival required number, "Chorale and Capriccio" by Caesar Giovannini. Last of all we play our selected number which is a contemporary overture by Carrol M. Butts, "Heritage West." From there we go to sight reading where we play a march and one other number.

Also, last Tuesday night the band performed for the Band Boosters for a public appearance before the festival.

"Art Show"

Well Attended

An art show including such works as colleagues, wood carvings, wood sculpturings, wood stainings, plaquings, and oil paintings were presented by Mrs. Wilson's art class. These were lined up on center front stage and also massed along the back wall in an original fashion. The display included paper mache, chalk drawings, and handicrafts.

The art was shown Friday night before and during the game. A favorable comment about this display was: "It is tasteful."

Electric Circuits Currents

On Friday, February 25th, the math-science club held its last February meeting. The subject was electric circuits and currents. It was well presented by Alan Nielson, with help by Mr. Boerma. He started by showing the members carbon resistors and then showed how they work. Next he showed some diodes and transistors. Then he hooked combinations of transistors to "a pretty green thing" that turned out to be an oscilloscope. He showed different waves of AC currents. The meeting was held in the Physics Lab, and it was all very well presented.

Are you an F.S.C. man?

Next Tuesday, March 7th, the Seniors who have enrolled at Ferris State College will be going there for a tour of the campus.

Any Senior Student who has not signed up to go, please do so immediately.

Mardi Gras

The French Club held its first annual Mardi Gras, Monday, February 28, 1972. French delicacies were served. The king and queen were chosen by popular vote: James Middleton portrayed Napoleon, and Dolinda Riley a beautiful, brown, cow.

"STAFF BOX"

Have you been gaining 10 pounds in the past few weeks? If so, you have probably been patronizing the weekly bake sale. The bake sales provide a good way for a group to make extra money, and the sale's products are a delicious dessert for your lunch!

The bake sale idea originates in a club or class that is short of money. The club's president makes a formal declaration of a shortage of funds and designates Friday as bake sale day. The club members all agree that a bake sale would be an excellent way of making money. After the meeting, all club members promptly forget about Friday's bake sale until 8 pm Thursday night. The club member's cry is, "Mother, our club has a bake sale tomorrow. Do we have any chocolate for some brownies?"

After looking over the re-sources of mother's cupboard, the club member makes a fast trip to the grocery store for sugar, butter, and chocolate. Upon returning home, the young cook hurriedly mixes the brownies and leaves mother's kitchen a mess. The mess will just have to wait, because that Algebra is due tomorrow! (In the back of his mind he knows that mother will take pity on him and clean up the kitchen.)

The next morning mother gets the job of cutting and wrapping the brownies, while our club member is throwing his books together

Varsity Wildcats Basketball

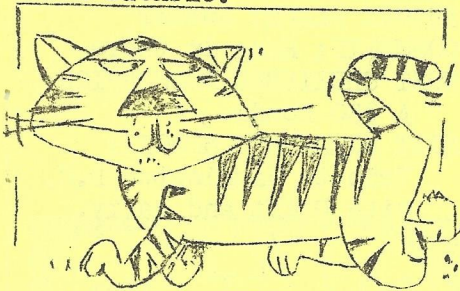

The Lakeview Wildcats ended their 1971-1972 regular season by defeating the Saranac Redskins 80-48.

It was parents night at the Lakeview Gym, and the Cats weren't about to let their parents down. They raced to an early 20 point lead and at the end of the first quarter the Wildcats lead 26-5. In the second quarter everybody saw action as the Lakers continued to pour on the pressure to the Redskins. It was more of the same in the second half as Lakeview was never in trouble.

The victory enabled the Cats to finish the season just one game under the 0.500 mark with an 8-9 record.

Three Wildcats hit double figures, they were: Bob Guthrie (18), Kelvin Lutterloh (14), and Mike Lindsey (11).

Friday night was the final home game for five Wildcat Seniors: John Garcia, Dave Andresen, Mike Lindsey, Marty Morales, and Dick Guthrie.

Congratulations "Mark & Matt"

No Lakeview Ski Club member has to worry about being rescued if he gets injured skiing if Matt Marshall or Mark Olson are around. Mark and Matt, both have recently been certified as National Ski Patrolmen. The club is very proud of them as it is a grueling course to complete and many who try, fail.

National Ski Patrolmen must pass rigid ski endurance tests, be skilled in tabaggon handling and have extensive first aid training in order to perform the serious service of rescuing an injured skier. They are easily identified on the hills by the Rusty Parka and first aid belts they wear.

Congratulations, Guys!

F.H.A. Sponsors DANCE

The FHA sponsored the dance last Friday after the game. They made a good profit. In the next few weeks, FHA will sell stationary. Buy some!

and getting dressed for school. As the bus arrives, the student piles the box of brownies on top of three books and runs off to the bus. Mother only hopes that the brownies will make it to the bake sale without becoming crumbs.

Lunch time comes and the brownies are soon bought by hungry students who use the power of the purse to vanquish their hunger from a long morning of classes!

Kittens End... after a Fine Season

Last Friday night was the last game of the season for the Kittens. They ended with a 60-50 win over Saranac. The win makes their record for the season 13-4.

As a tradition the team always brings up a Freshman. This year they brought up Scott Jura. Scott, as for the whole team, played another great game.

This marks the first winning season for this team who haven't had the best of luck in past years. But, they put it all together this year for a great season.

Never Too Young to Vote

— 3 classes before lunch, 3 classes after.

— 4 classes before lunch, 2 classes after.

Never too young to vote. Mr. Ford would like us, the school body, to vote on the number of classes we will have before and after lunch next year.

Last year we had 3 classes before lunch and 3 after. This year it is 4 and 2.

Mr. Ford cannot promise 100% satisfaction, but at least he is willing to listen.

The voting box will be in the office on the desk until Monday after school. Here's your chance to voice your opinion. VOTE!

Medical Careers at Davenport
March 8 10 attend

Wednesday, March 8, a group of medical interested students attended a seminar at Davenport College, Grand Rapids. This group consisted of Sandy Mishler, Jerri Marvin, Ann Stark, Nancy Rowland, Jackie Bennett, Cindy Brockway, Karen Hansen, Mrs. Hansen, Mrs. Brockway, and Mrs. Paulen.

Wemet in the auditorium along with about 250 students from other schools. We then had an introductory speech by Mrs. Lottie Waterman.

After this, we were divided into different groups and then proceeded with our group leader to different sessions, the last one being of our own choice. Some of the different classifications of the various sections were: Pharmacy, Medical Technology, Registered Nursing, Physical Therapist, Dieticism, and Doctor. You were in a session for approximately 25 minutes where each instructor would brief you on the training you needed for that various job, and just what type of work your job involved in this field. You then were given time to ask any questions that you had.

It proved to be a very interesting trip if you were leaning at all towards the field of medicine.

Good Luck to the

Ferris is Joined

On Tuesday, March 7, 17 seniors accompanied by Mr. VanOcker, went to Ferris for a Student Conference Day. These students had to have either been accepted by Ferris or applied there in order to attend. They arrived at Ferris about 9:15 where, after walking to about ten different buildings, they were directed to go to the audiovisual building. Here they gathered with students from other schools and watched a slide presentation giving them an idea of what the campus is like. They also listened to a talk given by the President of the Student Government. They were then divided into groups and taken on a tour of the campus. After that, they ate lunch and were given free time to explore further and look into fields in which they were interested. They returned home with a better idea of campus life at Ferris.

Poet's Corner: Debut

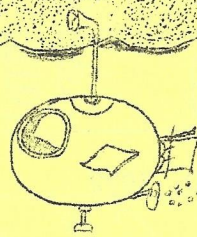

Ode To City Water

Flow on, you greasy stream of brown.
Flow on, Oh Water, from the town....
The scourge of drink from out thy pipes
Is not unlike that sewage ripe
Which leaves us breathless, with a moan.

Those pepes, a rusted riddled waste
Where crustacea lie, and bask, and baste.
Oh, cesspool! You truly are Akin to this unpalatable tar.
Our stomachs should at least have peace

Mail on! Those monthly water bills!
Pay on! The general coffer fills!
The money that we pay today
Is later spent in such a way
That to the Victor, goes his kill.

The poet alone takes blame of this hackery, Mr. Holmes.

feature story: Once Upon A Time...

Once upon a time there was a little girl named Goldilocks. Her dad would not let her practice her electric guitar so she ran away from home. She ran from home to see if she couldn't make it big in Hollywood. When she arrive she was hungry so she walked to the local bar. The first table we saw was much too tall and there was this cat sitting there who called himself, Puss n' Boots. He told her where we could find a table that was just her size. He said, "Go next door, knock three times, and ask for the three little pigs." So Goldilocks did just that. But the table they showed her was still too big. She was just about ready to break down when this chick called Snow White came in lookin' foxy. She said, "Come on kid. I'll help you out." They left and walked out into the street. But all of a sudden these three bears came out of the alley. They said, "All right Snowy baby, gimme your dough." Snow White grabbed Goldilock's hand and they started to run. The three bears chased them and just as they were about to catch them the Wizard of Oz gave Snow White abd Goldilocks wings and they started to fly. But, they flew too high and the sun melted their wings. Don't worry, the seven dwarfs saw them falling and called Robin Good and Richard the Lion Hearted came just in time to take the poison apple

WRESTLING

Last Friday, March 3, while most of you were sitting the day out in school thinking you had it tough, Felix Perez was in Alma and he was really sweating it. You see, Felix was about to wrestle in the first round of the state finals. But before I tell you how he did, let me give you an idea of what it is like to compete in state. To take a fourth place at state you have to wrestle no less than four times. Easy? Not when your wrestling with the top 16 wrestlers in the state. Well Felix didn't get fourth, he got beat in the first round 2-2, but Felix is only a Freshman and he will try again next

Basketball against Harrison-

The Lakeview Wildcats were eliminated in the State tourney last Thursday by Harrison, 48-43.

The low score reflects the excitement of the game, as the Harrison team stalled most of the third quarter. The Cats led at the half by one, 26-25, then Harrison slowed down the action. Bob Guthrie was the only scorer in double figures for the Cats with 13.

Harrison went on to defeat Reed City for the District Championship.

Lakeview finished with 8 wins and 10 losses for the year.

Attention: Any boys who have not signed up for track should see Mr. Jonaitis or Mr. Skorka in the gym any night after school.

Pep Club

The Pep Club did a great job this year helping spread spirit through our student body. Did you notice all of the signs put up every week? There was time and talent put into these signs. Pep Club was also helpful in assemblies with their skits. To end their successful year, they are having a slumber party in the near future. Many thanks to our Pep Club.

Once upon a time there was a doctor named Upjohn who practiced medicine in Hastings, Michigan. During his medicinal practice he found that the traditoonal pills he prescribed for his patients were doing little, if anything, to cure their ills. Dr. Upjohn began experimenting and developed the "friable" pills which were a great improvement.

This was some of the history learned by the Math-Science Club and other students when they toured Upjohn Company in Kalamazoo yesterday. The group was shown vitamin production, cough syrup and ointment packaging, and sterilization processes. They returned to Lakeview with newly gained knowledge of pharmaceutical productions and a 30 day supply of vitamins.

Math-Science Meets

On Friday, March 10, the Math & Science Club held a meeting in the chemistry lab. The subject was chemistry, mostly dealing with acids and bases. This meeting was well presented by LuAnn Ball, the club president, and Kathy Schreiber, the club secretary. They first gave a brief outline on the acids and bases. They then showed an experiment using a burette.

When the demonstrations were over, the members talked about their trip to UPJOHNS and future trips.

Band Festival

The LHS Band left Lakeview at 11:00 last Saturday morning on their way to Grand Haven to attend the district band festival. They played at 2:15 that afternoon, their performance consisting of a selected warm-up march, "The Minstrels"; the festival required number, "Chorale and Capriccio"; and a selected number, "Heritage West." They were judged on these numbers by three judges, all three of whom gave the band a II. From there the band went to sight-reading where they played a march and an over-ature. There is only one judge in sight-reading. Lakeview got a I from this judge. This made an overall rating of II.

The Future Homemakers of America met Thursday, March 9 to discuss plans for this year's FHA week, March 19 through March 25. It was decided to send roses to each club member's church on Sunday, March 19. Monday the girls will wear the club colors---red and white. The FHA will stay after school Tuesday to make paper tissue roses and cupcakes. These cupcakes will be presented to the teachers the following day. Thursday the FHA will sponsor a bake sale. The organization will deliver their tissue roses to the hospital and perhaps sing songs to the patients Friday after school. They will return to the school for a fondue supper. To conclude FHA week, each member will do a good deed for someone on Saturday.

Also discussed at the meeting was the FHA's tentatively planned trip to Chicago, scheduled for June 5 and 6, 1972.

ANNOUNCEMENT

On Monday evenings from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m., the High School Gym will be open to any high school boy for an evening of recreation.

A Thought-Out Manner

When you glance through the newspaper, isn't there one word that stands for so many of the headlines? These headlines of the newspaper peer out at you in bold letters revealing one major characteristic of people-sarcasm. If the paper is too remote for you, look in this school or in yourself.

Teachers are our leaders in the life of school. Whether we feel that they have hit the abilities and our standards shouldn't be answered with sarcasm from us. Comments line the halls such as, "Who does she think she is? He can't make me do that! Who cares? Where did he get his B.S.?"

We, the students of L.H.S. and America, are blind. When we have the time to make sarcastic remarks towards our leaders, we have failed ourselves without taking another step.

Take one right step and move in the right direction. Admit to yourself that you're not the ruler of the world. Go and see the teacher and talk or argue it out. The teacher may be mad, but I'm sure he would benefit from your talking to him. "Be humble and take orders today. You might be giving them tomorrow." If you don't agree with an order, move toward what you believe is right in a thought-out manner.

A day in the life of a^b Band Member^a*

TIME: Sat. March 11, 1972

PLACE: Bus to Grand Haven, Grand Haven, and bus home.

PEOPLE: Lakeview band members and a few adults.

REASON FOR BEING: Class B district high school band festival.

On a bus one cold March morning, about 11:00 to be exact, about eighty members of the band and about eight adults were very excited. The reason for this was a very common one. What if Alan Bennett's pop corn or Genny Towne's pop was gone by the time it was passed to them. A choice handful even was excited about the band festival they were off to. The passengers on the busses were entertained by card playing, eating, or music. The music was live and taped. When we entered the city limits, we had the privilege to pass a homeward bound bus to Greenville.

The band arrived at the school at 12:50, went to the Lakeview cloak rooms, got some instructions, and were left with a choice half hour to see the school, make new friends, and mingle. We then met again at 1:35, was taken to the warm-up room to warm up. Our guide came from there to take us to the performance room where we played our pieces. They were "The Minstrels" by R. W. Bowles, "Chorale and Capriccio" by Ceasar Giovannini, and "Heritage West" by Carrol M. Butts. The performance was completed, leaving the band with one more task. Sight reading. This is the thing in which a band must play two pieces, cond. Page 3 col. 2

entitled —
Where did my feet go?
— or — Stomachs Aweigh!!!

At this stage of the game, I can honestly say that I've mastered the control of my gastric juices. This is harder than it seems: having tipped the scales at 130 pounds, it took a lot of doing. So here, for the first time anywhere in print, is the fantastic account of my private battle of the bulge.

It all began one evening after an "all you can eat for $3" dinner. I was brushing my teeth when my eye caught the bathroom scale. I jumped on it with the carefree abandon of a hippopotamus and eagerly read the results of my efforts. My face blanched (I can only guess what it did as I wasn't looking into a mirror.) It read 130 pounds. Thoughts ran through my mind: not able to get through doors, having to wear girdles, not being able to roll over in bed...every one of them giving me the willies.

I immediately set to work on a solution. First, I spit out the toothpaste (that would cut out a few ounces.) Then I took a hot bath (to melt off a few more), and had my hair cut (protein is so heavy!). I was going to drain some blood, but I always faint at the sight of it.

Then I ran to the nearest store and bought all the diet books and sweat-suits I could find. I ate the diet books but they didn't do any good. I got into one of the sweat-suits that I bought but it didn't seem quite thick enough. I put on about six more so that I had about four inches of padding, then went down to the basement, sat by the furnace, and sweated for three weeks.

Only after that three weeks of sweating could I build up enough courage to again ascend the scales. This time it read 129 pounds. I somehow felt that things weren't going fast enough, so I whipped out Phase II.

Phase II was the crash diet. I tried Dr. Stillman's Water diet, but I had to spend the nights in the bathroom. I finally settled on the one below:

BREAKFAST: Brush teeth; don't use toothpaste.

LUNCH: Brush teeth, using toothpaste, but don't swallow.

DINNER: leftovers from Breakfast and Lunch

I kept this up for another three weeks, but the scales read 125 pounds. Then I hit on the perfect solution:

I threw out the scales.
-Cecil B. De Milhaus-

2nd Band Story

an overture and a march, that they had never seen before. They did this with ease, getting compliments from the judge.

Along about this time, we were getting restless. The reason, we wanted to eat, drink, and track down the person we had gotten to know before playing. The band was dismissed to listen to other bands and wait for the ratings to be posted.

Lakeview High School received a II rating

and a I rating from the sight reading judge. That didn't help any though, because the final rating was a II. After roll was taken at 4:15, the wild banders ran to the busses like Elks to an alcohole. Their one ambition was to resume the card games and eating.

On passing through Grand Rapids, we took a right turn and another right turn into the local Burger King, where kids are king, as many a person with a crown can tell you. After eating, or before, we climbed into the busses to resume the games of cards, singing, eating, or whatever. When Lakeview was seen on the horizon at 6:45, many a happy face looked up and saw a star on the north, and they knew, well, that's another story. After collecting everything, the loyal members of the Lakeview High School band were very anxious looking forward to a night of sleep, baby sitting, movies and meatrooms. So ended a day in the life of a typical band organization.

A "Blessing" in Disguise

After the disappointment of their trip being postponed, the Ski Club found last Saturday to be a much more beautiful day than the originally planned day would have been. The snow conditions were excellent, it was real warm, and the sun brought about some early tans.

The skiers spend the day fighting chair lifts, big Buch, schuss-boomers, and flying skis. Although there were no major catastrophes, there were a few abrasions and concussions as can be expected from a very successful day of skiing.

Varsity Cheerleading

The following girls have been chosen as the new 1972-1973 Varsity Cheerleaders:

1. Bob Garmley
2. Jackie Drain
3. Rocky Nelson
4. Sandy Nielsen
5. Ann Pontius
6. Gloria Shaw

CONGRATULATIONS GIRLS!!

As a Pollock Says

As we all know LHS has a building Trades Class this year. This project was building a 3 bedroom ranch styled home.

With 24 men, 1 teacher and 1 student teacher; we are hoping to have it completed by the first of June. We have already completed 1 bedroom and working on the other rooms putting up drywall, working on the chimney and the siding.

We are very lucky in the few accidents we have had. Fred Fairchild lost his finger. Steve Benjamin hit himself in the head with a hammer, (way to go Steve) and Don Kohl fell from the ceiling, and hurt his back. Keep up the good work men. As a pollock says, "Two hands on the hammer are better than one."

FBLA IS WORKING

This meeting will now come to order!

This was the sound heard from Vice President, Genny Towne Thursday, March 23, at the FBLA meeting. The main purpose of this meeting was to get a little of the last minute information needed for convention reservations.

The convention they are working towards will be held April 21-22 at the Northwestern Michigan College in Traverse City, Michigan. The FBLAers and three sponsors will be leaving at approximately 2:00 PM, Friday the 21.

Registration is from 4:00-7:00 at the Northwestern Michigan College. At night from 7:30-9:00 will be the First General Session. At this time we will tell them that Dolinda Riley will be running for a state office.

On Saturday they will be entering into competition. The areas in which they may enter are: Book-keeping, Beginning Shorthand, Advanced Shorthand, Spelling, Manual typewriting, Electric typewriting, Vocabulary, Ten-key adding machine, and Public speaking. Also Mr. FBLA and Miss (cont. page 3. column 1)

Pollution

Unsafe
at any speed

This is an article about pollution--both air pollution and litter. Last Friday after school as I walked through the student lounge, I couldn't help but notice all the pop cans and candy wrappers that had been left behind for some one else to take care of--like the janitors, as if they didn't have enough to do! I know that there are alot of ecology kids and anti-pollution people around our school so do your own thing by telling your friends to feed the wastebasket.

Another thing that is displeasing to alot of kids is to go into the bathroom and come out choking and coughing. Why must they do this--because some disrespectful kids have been in there before them smoking. It is really disgusting to have to go in there to go to the bathroom or comb your hair and come out with smoke odor all over your clothes. We know who most of you are and since you have now found out that you can get away with it, would you please stop--at least in the bathrooms!

Is this the Language of Man?

Here I was getting off the yellow dog thinking of getting home to go to the pool to catch some rays when this moldy door-hugger came up to tell me how to ace the test tomorrow. What does she know I thought? She always hangs around with bubble-gummers and comes grubby to pep rallies. But what she said really made sense. She told me I'd be able to at least hook a test sometimes if I wouldn't always flake out in class. That was using the Clyde. Well, today instead of going to the pad to bag Z's, I'd go home and study for the bear. I couldn't stand to take another test! Well, to tell the straight skinny once I got settled down and told my kid brother to bug out and not to flip me I got some studying done.

The next day as I was hanging a right towards history I was nervous over the hairy thing. Guess what! I didn't blow the test so tonight after studying I can seek the Great White Biscuit with no problems.

The definitions of these underlined terms follow:

1. to ace a test- to get a high mark.
2. to bag Z's- to go to sleep.
3. bear- a hard test or subject.
4. to blow a test- to do poorly or fail.
5. bubble-gummer- junior high student (used by senior high students)
6. to bug out- to disappear.

(Feature Story cont. from pg. 2 col 3)

7. to catch some rays- to sunbathe
8. Clyde- one's head or mind ("Use your Clyde")
9. come grubby- wear your old clothes
10. door-bugger- a girl who clings to the right hand door of a car on a date
11. to flake out- to go to sleep
12. to flap- to get disturbed
13. hairy- difficult or frightening
14. to hang a right- to make a right turn
15. to hook a test- to get an average mark
16. moldy- unattractive, not popular
17. to seek the Great White Biscuit- to go to sleep
18. straight skinny- the real truth
19. to tube a test- to fail
20. yellow dog- a school bus

This is a story written by one of the students of Mrs. Rutledge's Language of Man class.

Meeting the Easter Bunny

On Easter morn at early dawn
Before the cocks were crowing,
I met a bob-tail bunnykin and asked where he was going,
" 'Tis in the house and out
the house a-tipsy,
tipsy-toeing,
'Tis round the house and
'bout the house a-lightly
I am going,"
"But what is that of every hue,
you carry in your basket?"
" 'Tis eggs of gold and eggs
of blue;
I wonder that you ask
it.
'Tis chocolate eggs and bonbon eggs and eggs of red and gray,
For every child in every house on bonny Easter day."
He perked his ears and winked his eye and twitched his little nose;
He shook his tail--what tail he had--
and stood up on his toes.
"I must be gone before the sun;
the East is growing
gray;
'Tis almost time for bells to chime."

"Sprin' Feuah" the Rabbit

Walk for Humanity

Taking a step in the right direction is what many of you are going to be doing April 15 on the walk for humanity.

There will be more than an estimated 1,500 people, young and old who will try 31 miles to feed the undernourished. I feel that this walk is a good way to give all a chance to do something worthwhile along with a little fun. All of you who are walking should be proud and congratulated, even if you don't make all 31 miles, for your efforts. If you are not walking, I feel you should be proud, too, to sponsor someone who is.

I think if we all pitch in and help even a little maybe our area could feed an area twice the size of our's and make many people happy.

Why don't you, if you haven't signed up to walk, or sponsored anyone yet, sign up, or even offer one penny a mile to someone who is walking. Remember this is a walk for humanity and every penny helps!!!

The Real meaning of Easter

Easter and spring arrive together, the first celebrating the resurrection of Christ and the beginning of His new life, and the second breathing new life into the world of nature. The word Easter comes from the festival of Eostre, Teutonic goddess of Spring. Easter falls on the first Sunday after the full moon following the spring equinox.

On Easter Sunday, Christians attend church services and recall the Bible story that tells how Jesus disappeared from His tomb on the third day after His crucifixion. An angel appeared to His followers and announced, "He is risen."

Many secular symbols have come to be associated with Easter: lilies, bonnets, furry chicks. But the most popular of all is said to hide gaily decorated eggs in houses and yards. The bunny and the eggs are such old customs that no one knows how or when they were started. But we do know that both the eggs and rabbits have come to be symbols of birth and new life.

DAYS I HAVE KNOWN

Days that slip by like water running out of a pitcher;
And days that drag like a tired old workhorse at the end of his days.
I have known days when I wished the sun would never set;
And days when I wished it had never come up.
Days when I felt like flying across a field of flowers.
And days when I wanted to crawl
in a hole and cover my head.
I have known days when I felt as wise as Socrates,
And days when I felt as dense as Algernon.
All these days I have known
And these are the days of my life.

Remember about two weeks ago when Mr. Ford said we would eat lunch an hour early, at 11:20, and buses would be here at 12:00?
On the way to the lunch room, Mr. Charnley accidentally (?) missed the lunch room and opened the door to the ladies restroom. When he came out his face was red and had a puzzled look on it. As he walked out, the word "Whoops!" popped out of his mouth.

So remember, when school

double look to make sure you go in the right door.

THAT UNRULY MUSCLE

-Debbi Gage

Oh dear dear me,
I've done it again.
My husband thinks me a shrew,
And my friends think me inane.

I know I shouldn't have said it,
Nor shall I say it again,
But alas I did say it,
And I feel so awfully ashamed.

Oh why was I gifted with a tongue,
That instrument of evil
That forms passionate feelings into words.

How could I be so stupid,
Why was I so absurd?

Flapping around in one's mouth,
It sometimes gets away.
It's such a slippery little devil!
Sometimes I just can't stop it,
Though try I may.

How does one rule this unruly
muscle,
That embarrasses one to death,
And gets one into trouble?

I dare say it shall never get away from me again.
If it tries I'll bite it soundly,
Yes, that is what I'll do.
One has to do something drastic,
When one's friends are getting so few.

Skipping: ^amajor Problem

One of the major problems which is quite obvious in today's school atmosphere is skipping. At noon time, a person can look out the doors and see anywhere from five to ten cars leaving the school parking lot. Also the number of cars making a fast get away just before an assembly is unbelievable. The population of the cars decrease thirty percent in just minutes.

There are many causes for this reduction of people: poor assemblies, poor classes, and poor students.

If students were allowed to choose their own assembly programs, it would most definitely decrease the skipping of assemblies. By this, I mean to say, the students could form an assembly committee(program) to make suggestions and gather local talent to perform at these assemblies. This would gather a wider attendance and make LHS a more united school.

Also, we could consider, by adopting the same rules as the above paragraph, forming a student curriculum committee made up of five students from each grade to choose classes for that coming year. This way, the students wouldn't have to take classes not to their liking.

As for poor students, this remains much in their hands. Teachers can't force education upon a poor student. A student can only learn that which he wants to learn.

If everyone would pitch in and help, things may improve slightly.

MR. Cottontail

A press conference has just been held for the purpose of interviewing the two candidates for the office of Easter Bunny.

Following the conference our roving reporter was allowed a few minutes with the present Easter Bunny. Here are the results of that brief talk.

Interviewer: Mr. Cottontail, may I have a few words with you?

Mr. Cottontail: Please sir call me Peter, it makes me feel young again and as popular as Santa Claus. All the children and even their parents call him by his first name you know.

Int; Yes sir, I know. Very well Peter may I have a few words with you?

Peter: s You have already had a few words with me but you may have a few more. You can have all you want. What's your name sonny?

Int; Re Porter. People call me RP for short.

Peter: Reporter. People call ya RP for short. Oh how sweet. Well ask on RP.

Int: Who do you think is going to win the election to become your successor as the World Famous "Easter Bunny"?

Peter: Of the two contestants, Peter Cottontail Jr. and Charles Frontail Jr., my son Peter Cottontail Jr. is much better suited for the job.

Top Ten

Announced!

Good Work!

Kathy Schreiber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Schreiber of Route 2, Howard City, will be this year's valedictorian with a point average of 3.969 for the first seven semesters of high school.

She has always attended Lakeview Community Schools. She has been secretary for the Math-Science Club for two years, a member of the French Club, and page editor of the Wildcat Chronicle. Participating in three operettas and one play has been a rewarding pastime.

Kathy is a member of the Amble United Methodist Church. Her church activities include singing in the choir, attending UMYF, of which she is secretary, and assisting in Bible School.

Singing, knitting, reading, and snowmobiling are some of her hobbies. Her interest lies in the field of special education.

This year's salutatorian, with a grade point average of 3.964, is LuAnn Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ball of Route 1, Stanton. She has always attended Lakeview Community Schools.

LuAnn is an active band member. She has participated in four operetta orchestras and was a member of the Ferris Youth Symphony Band for one year. Besides band, LuAnn has been on the Paper Staff and Annual Staff. She has been a member of FHA for four years, holding offices such as parliamentarian-points chairman-reporter-historian, and treasurer. LuAnn is currently president of the Math-Science Club, of which she has been a member for two years. Last year she was treasurer of this organization.

LuAnn's hobbies include playing the flute, knitting, and bowling. She has been a member of Langston Live-wires 4-H Club for eight years, holding offices of treasurer and president; she is now a 4-H leader for leathercraft and knitting.

LuAnn plans to attend Ferris State College's School of Pharmacy this fall and wants to become a hospital pharmacist.

The following eight students complete the top ten list for this year's graduating class: Benjamin Kinsey, Marcia Frandsen, Julie Stout, Mary May, Douglas Larsen, Debra Carlson, Lisa Clark and Kathy Blumberg.

In addition to the top ten students, the Class of 1972 has eighteen other students having at least a B average. They are: Guy Newell, Suzanne Molitor, Judy Hubbard, Britt Lebeck, Sheila Hansen, Terry Swan, Luann Raglin, Matthew Marshall, Connie Haenlein, Cindy Brockway, Gennie Towne, Barbara Stine, Donna Hubbard, Holli Imhoff, Annette Andersen, Mark Olson, Rebecca Jeppesen, and Cynthia Mathis.

The Class of 1972 will have 131 graduates, with 77 of them having plans to continue their education next year.

CONGRATULATIONS!!!!

However Charles Iron-tail Jr. is following in his father's footsteps, putting up a mighty dirty fight, so at this time I really am not sure who will be my successor.

Int: When does the winning rabbit take over the post of Easter Bunny?

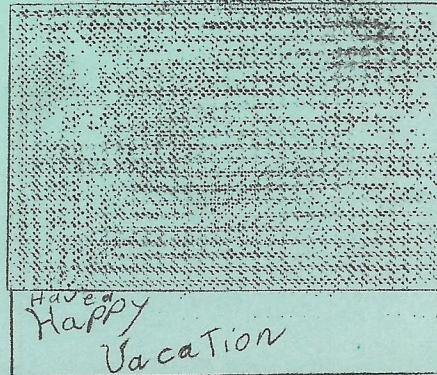

Peter: The rabbit who wins this election will accompany me on my final rounds, then they will go into a year of training under my supervision. Next year when Easter comes around they will officially be taking over the role of Easter Bunny.

Int: Is there anything more you can tell me at this time?

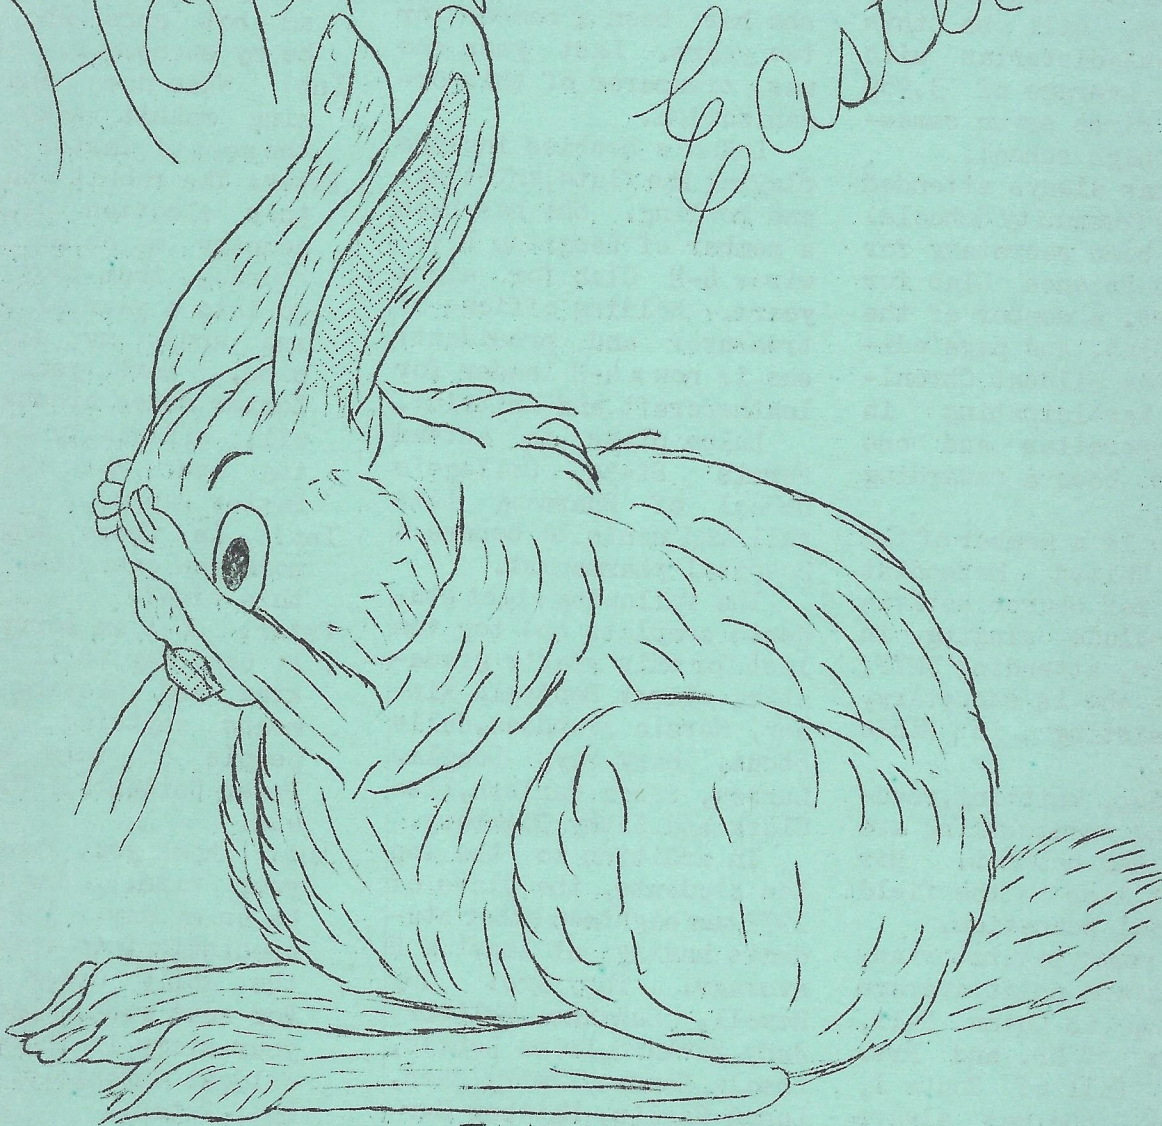

Peter: No I am sorry. All I can say is if being kind and playing fair means anything to the people of this world, Peter Cottontail Jr. will win.

Int: Thank you, Peter, for your time. Now I must be on my way. I have an appointment to interview the Jolly Green Giant for next week. Look for your story in Thursday's Wildcat Chronicle. Good Bye, Peter.

Peter: Thank you, I'll be sure to look. Good Bye RP.

Lakeview FFA held Banquet

The Lakeview FFA Chapter banquet was held April 12, 1972, in the Cafetorium. It was attended by over 100 parents, members, and guests. Everyone enjoyed a very good meal.

After eating we enjoyed a fine program with Doug Poulsen as toastmaster. To start the program we heard Don Kohl and Nick Helms give their demonstration on raising dairy calves. They received a gold award at the regional contest on this demonstration. Then Richard Draft and Roy Shipman received the Honorary FFA degree. Winners of the Foundation Awards were: Star Farmer- Greg Johnson, Star Greenhand- Mike Schnick, Dairy- Greg Kraft, Crops- George Rader, Livestock- Greg Johnson, Home Improvement- Kendell Martin, Fish and Wildlife- Stan Bellinger, Farm Mechanics- Pete Hansen, Ornamental Horticulture- Dwight Purchasing! . . .

Eva Mannikin

On Monday, March 20, the Pre-Nursing I class held a fashion show at Kelsey Memorial Hospital. The girls modeled old and new nursing uniforms as well as old and new wedding dresses.

The money earned from ticket sales will go toward the purchase of an Eva Mannikin. The girls have nearly enough money to make the purchase now.

U.S. Army will be Represented

There will be a U.S. Army representative in the counseling office Wednesday, April 19, from 1:00 to 3:00. He will show a short film on educational opportunities in the U.S. Army. He would like to meet with all young men interested in the army.

The counselors would like all next year's Seniors and Juniors to stop at the counselors office to make out their next year's schedule.

Math- Science Club

On Wed., April fifth, the math-science club went on a field trip to Grand Rapids to tour the police crime lab. Nine club members and two adults met at the school at 8:30 in the morning. After piling into two cars, they made their way to their destination. They were taken into the lab and shown the various methods of drug detection and identification. They were also shown a living sample of marijuana. They arrived home at about noon.

French Club

During lunch hour on March 30, the French Club held a meeting to plan various upcoming activities.

In a previous meeting, the club presented a self-written play. At the present time, the club's President, James Middleton, is filming a version of this play, using the French Club members as actors.

The club is also planning a dinner at the Ember's Restaurant in Mt. Pleasant, on May 2, 4, or 9. Outvoting the dissenters, a menu of pork chops, baked potatoes, Caesar Salad, and dessert was chosen.

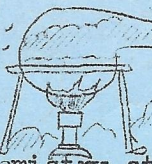

A potluck meal is also being planned by the club on May 18. Parents of members will be invited.

Fifth hour, following the meeting, the French I class held a surprise birthday party for their teacher Miss Randolph. A surprised shriek was heard in rooms in the English section when Miss Randolph returned from an office errand to be greeted by a wild throng.

editorial:

It's YOUR Decision!

If you're a chemistry student or plan to be one, you have many things to think about. Are you willing to give up your noon hours to go to lab or take a test? Are you willing to be in class two hours a day and still get just one credit instead of two? You must consider these things. Every day students are searching for new ideas and facts. If you like to do problems, lab experiments, take hundreds of pages of notes, and read textbooks, this class is for you! Studying every minute is the password. It's your decision!!

THE PERILS OF A PACKER

Some people have a low regard for grocery store packers. They see them as stone faced slobs whose sadistic pleasures lead them to make instant French toast out of their bread and eggs. Bullfeathers. As I have been a packer for oh, 75 years (it seems that long), I know them for their true selves: trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, and all the Boy Scout qualities right down to reverent. You may ask, "How can such magnificent fellows possibly get such a cruddy reputation?" It ain't easy.

Packers have been drilled to be the most obsequious (I won't tell you what that means; look it up yourself) people alive. No doubt if you came up to one and punched him in the abdomen (e.g. the gut), he would say, "Thank-you." However, this test isn't advised, for the packer might not have been drilled quite enough and his reflex action could prove disastrous.

Still don't know how a packer gets his rotten reputation? He gets it from holidays like Good Friday.

When a store is open on Good Friday, it is busy for two reasons: it's (1) a holiday, and (2) a Friday; and, if the weather is nice, that's another reason. As is the custom, the store closes its doors in respect for the holiday; usually from noon to three. Aha! But do the customers know this? Only to a minute degree. About 2:30 the parking lot is bursting at the seams with cars. At

"MAME" IS A MUSICAL!

The Lakeview High School Choir, the group which has annually presented a musical for the past thirteen years, presents its sixteenth production, the Broadway musical comedy "Mame." Under the direction of Elmer Coon, the cast is now in the final stages of rehearsal and will be ready for production on April 27, 28, and 29 at 8:00 p.m.

Marilyn Bennett is student director and the leads of the show are: Patrick Dennis (young)..Jimmy Shaw; Agnes Gooch..Paula Carper; Vera Charles..Jannean Warner; Mame Dennis..Judy Hubbard; Beauregard J.P. Burnside ..Guy Newell; Mother Burnside..Kathy Schreiber; Patrick Dennis (old)..Dave Hawley; Mrs. Upson..Patti Wills; Mr. Upson..Alan Bennett; Gloria Upson..Laurie DeVoogd; and Pegeen Ryan.. Jackie Bennett.

Mame is a sophisticated society woman who suddenly becomes the guardian of her late brother's son, Patrick. With the help of her dear friend, Vera, and her secretary, Agnes, she always manages to have a project to work on. She ends up arranging Patrick's life and taking his son to India, starting all over again.

NOTICE THE STORY BELOW YE WHO SIGN FOR CLASSES

Next year's Juniors should sign up for next fall's classes. Classes are filling up fast, so hurry and register.

Also, any student who would like to take an interest test may take the test in the counseling office. The test is only about 25 minutes long, and any student is advised to take it.

PEP CLUB SLUMBER PARTY!!

Pep Club held their Slumber party on Friday, March 17. About fifteen girls joined in on the fun of the "Easter basket" treasure hunt and throwing Mrs. Wilson in a cold shower at 5:00 in the morning. Barb Abbey found the basket, which had been hidden by Mrs. Darrow in the clothes dryer, under a pile of clothes. Pep Club will begin work on posters for track soon.

Yesterday's Assembly

Thursday, April 20, LHS was invaded by a man who called himself a humorist. Al "Scoop" McGuire was named "Humorist of the Year" in 1968. Many students feel that the jokes he told yesterday were the same ones that he used back then. He was named Secretary of the Department of the Inferior, an office for which he was highly qualified. The assembly lasted nearly an hour. After this the students hurried to their sixth hour classes to have a good laugh.

Mr. Ford has told the students to plan a special assembly, but nobody took action. He tried to give the students a break in their studies by arranging yesterday afternoon's activity. His intentions were very good. Mr. Ford would like to see the students take more interest in planning special assemblies, possibly even form a committee to discuss such topics.

HIGH SCHOOL
Cafetorium

When this school was built, combinations were put on the lockers to lower the possibility of theft and the like. All this has done is make a contest of who can get the most combinations. This is alright by me, if it doesn't get to far out of hand. By that I mean if a person has a locker combination to another's locker, don't open it unless that person has given his ok. If you ever look at some open lockers, you might notice a lot of numbers on the door or wall. That is a local locker combination directory. It takes a lot of looking to find all those numbers, so give them a hand for their efforts, but not their morals.

Another thing that these people do is to put their books in another person's locker. That too is alright as long as the innocent person has the knowledge of the act. Just ask, the person won't mind if you are at least honest.

TRACK TEAM

Monday night the track team defeated Saranac by a score of 100½ to 21½. This was a well run meet with the Cats completely dominating the field.

First place efforts for the Cats went to: Bob Guthrie in the shot put; Marty Marshall in the high jump and pole vault; Matt Marshall in the long jump; and 880 relay team; Jon Comden in the 880; Dan Nelson in high and low hurdles; Wendell Martin in the mile, setting a new record for it of 4:45; Matt Marshall in the 100 and 220 relay; Curt Hauser in the 440; Allan LaShall in the 2-mile, and mile relay. Also with good efforts were: Mark Olson with two second places, and Charles Chapin with a second and a leg of the mile relay.

MEN with ...

FLYING FEET

The "72" track season has come and the Lakeview guys have conditioned themselves for a flying start! They have had two scrimmages and three meets already. How many of you know this? How many of you have made an effort to be spectators at these meets? Our track guys represent Lakeview in one of the spring sports! Are you going to support our men with flying feet?

SENIOR GIRL'S TEA

The United Church of Christ Youth Building was the scene of the 1972 Senior Girl's Tea on Monday evening, April 24. The Tea, sponsored by the Lakeview Women's Club, honored the Senior Girls and their mothers.

The girls were lined up and individually introduced by Mrs. DeVoogd and Mrs. LaFollette, who stated each girl's future plans. After the introductions, the mothers and daughters were shown a fashion show. The fashion show was presented by Mona's Dress Shop in Lakeview. Spring and summer fashions were modeled, and consisted of formals, evening wear, sportswear, swim suits, and lingerie. The fashions, designed by well known fashion companies, provided the girls and their mothers with an inside view of the 1972 Spring and Summer fashions.

To conclude the Tea, the Women's Club provided graduation cake, punch, and coffee to the graduating Seniors and honored mothers.

FARM BUREAU SCHOLARSHIPS

The Farm Bureau is offering a $100.00 scholarship to a graduating high school girl who has maintained a 2.0 academic standing, has demonstrated outstanding citizenship ability during her high school years, and will be attending MCC this fall. She must be from a Farm Bureau member's family and must reside in the Montcalm Community College district. If you would like more information on this scholarship, see the counselors.

Health Careers at Ferris State

On Monday, May 1, Mr. Fred Buys, Admission Counselor, and Mr. George Hensley, Health Curriculum Coordinator, both of Ferris State College, will be in Mr. Ebeling's 2nd and 3rd hour physical science classes, and in the counseling offices the 4th hour, to talk with students interested in all or any phase of Health Career Education or Technical-Industrial Associate degree programs. Any student in grades 9, 10, or 11 who has any interest in this area should plan to attend one of the class presentations or meet individually with either or both of these gentlemen in the guidance offices. Please get approval from your teacher in advance if you have to miss a class for this presentation.

Art Classes to Visit Grand Rapids

Next Tuesday, May 2nd, the art classes, under the supervision of Mrs. Wilson, will visit the Grand Rapids' Art Museum.

In their visit, they will see German and Flemish paintings, Oriental art, contemporary Michigan artwork, and assorted sculptures.

This tour was planned to follow up a unit the art classes had in landscape painting.

MATH Science & Geology

On Friday, April 21, a Math-Science Meeting was held in room 205. The program was presented by Brian Jorgensen, with the subject being geology and mineralogy. He told about various rock types and demonstrated specific gravity. Come to the next meet on April 28th!!!!

Anyone Can Make It!!

I believe that whatever a person does, he has a reason for doing it. A person becomes an athlete because he enjoys athletics. People find a great value in school because they want to be educated. A person commits a crime for a definite reason as does the person who skips school.

I feel that the reasons behind all our crime boil down to the person wanting to find his identity. He wants to be known for something. He searches for that something to be known for. If he can't find it, he searches for bigger, and for him, better things. Someday he may even hurt or kill himself trying to find his identity.

If you are searching for your true value in life, but can't find it let Nicky Cruz help you. He was lost, but now he knows where he is going. Anyone can make it if he tries.

More Perils of the Packer:
The Meatroom

"A checkout works from sun to sun, but a packer's work is never done."

-Cecil B. DeMilhaus
(1955?-??)

"There comes a time in every packer's life when he must come to the aid of his meat room." These words are engraved into each of the world's packers. After the first week of training, the green recruit is placed in the meat room with just one command: CLEAN!-which he does at a leisurely pace until he realizes that he must pack, too. Here is the usual evening procedure:

6:00-If nobody is looking, sneak into the meat room and start washing trays.

6:15-usually get thrown out of the meat room with the warning, "I don't want you in here until 7:30!!!" from the resident butcher.

6:30-sneak in again

6:45-get thrown out again

7:00-the resident butcher gives up and the cleaning begins

8:15-the resident butcher starts hinting that time's a-wastin'

8:30-the resident butcher starts screaming to hurry up

8:40-the resident butcher starts throwing things

8:50-(ten minutes before closing) the packer starts praying for a miracle

9:06-the miracle didn't come.

After three months, the packer eventually learns all the short cuts to cleaning the meatroom and can usually be done in an hour

SENIOR NEWS:

—A meeting with
Mr. Joyner....

Monday, April 24, during 3rd hour period. Seniors had the unexpected pleasure of meeting and talking with Mr. William Joyner, the only announced candidate running for State Representative to the 100th District of Michigan.

In December of 1971 Mr. Joyner was approached by a group of people from several towns and villages of the 100th District and he was asked to be their candidate for State Representative. At this particular time Mr. Joyner was not too interested in running for State Representative so he turned the people down. Later, in January he was approached by a more organized group of people and asked again to run. This time after he had given it some thought he accepted the candidacy.

Mr. Joyner has done many things which probably have helped him get where he is today. He told the Seniors a few of them. For example: Mr. Joyner has helped such people as Robert Kennedy and Phillip Hart with their campaigning. He worked in a Drug Crisis Clinic on a Telephone Hotline. And he spent three weeks traveling through South Africa studying life habits and the culture of the natives with the possibilities of helping them someday.

For the most part Mr. Joyner seemed to be a very interesting speaker. He always hit on a subject that most everybody had a very definite view on.

SPORTS-SPORTS

TRACK WITH CENTRAL MONTCALM.

First place efforts for Lakeview were: Bob Guthrie in the shot put; Dan Nelson in both the high and the low hurdles; Charles Chapin in the mile; Curt Hauser in the 440 and the mile relay, of which Jon Common, Matt, and Marty Marshall also participated. The mile relay team also set a new school record with a 3:40.1 time.

---not counting interruptions. But these interruptions usually make the difference between getting the meat room clean and being chased around the ham-hocks by the resident butcher (or is it being chased around the resident butcher by the ham-hocks?) for a job not too well done.

The primary interruption is usually the check-out screaming for a packer. So the packer must then leave the meat trays in the hot water and go up to pack. By the time he has returned, the water is cold and the sink must be drained and filled up with hot water again. By the time the sink is filled, the check-outs do their thing, and the packer must once again leave, while the water cools down. This is the procedure for the first half hour. If the packer cont'd next col.

Feature Story cont'd
is really lucky, the hot water is all gone by his third excursion to the tills, and he must scrape the meat off the trays with his fingernails. Joy.

The other interruption is the result of the "boys will be boys" syndrome; namely, the water and meat fights.

At the bottom of the most saw is a day's worth of gooey, sticky, flesh, just itching to be thrown. With a little water, it makes the perfect flesh ball.

Fbla State Leadership Conference

It was off to Traverse City last Friday for a weekend of friendly competition for twelve of Lakeview High School's Future Business Leaders. Each spring the State Leadership Conference is held with FBLA members from all over Michigan competing in various business-related events. Lakeview, like the fourteen other schools who attended, entered most of the events. Genny Towne entered Manual Typewriting and Public Speaking, Debbie Sahlbom competed in Electric Typewriting, Debra Carlson entered Beginning Shorthand and Miss FBLA and Holli Imhoff entered Advanced Shorthand. Bookkeeping was the event that Alan Bennett and Genny Gummer chose to enter. Lakeview's spelling team consisted of Karen Goulet, Dee Dee Davis, and Dolinda Riley; the Vocabulary team members were

The end to a perfect weekend was the formal banquet held Saturday night in the Dome Room of the Park Place Motor Inn. Mrs. William Milliken, Michigan's first lady, spoke to the group; and Mr. Ed Burakowski, a representative from the national FBLA office in Washington D.C., was on hand to install new officers and present awards. Lakeview received a plaque for the largest chapter attendance. Debra Carlson, a senior, placed third in Beginning Shorthand and was Runner-Up in the Miss FBLA competition.

To be chosen Miss FBLA is the highest honor in Michigan's FBLA award system. In competing for Miss FBLA, Debra had to write a letter of application for a secretarial position; ask for three letters of recommendation, include a transcript of high school grades and be interviewed by two judges.

FHA State Convention at Kalamazoo.

Patricia Johnson, Jean Buskirk, stiva Keilholtz, and Ann Charnley, students at Lakeview High School, attended the 27th Annual Future Homemakers of America State Convention, April 26, 27, and 28 on the campus of Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo. The delegates were accompanied by Miss Wanda Freeland and Mrs. Linda Darrow, home economics teachers and local FHA advisors.

This convention marked the 27th anniversary of the Michigan Association of Future Homemakers of America. It drew some 14,000 Michigan FHA'ers and advisors from 245 chapters throughout the state. The theme of this 27th annual convention was "FHA--Prepare for Progress." It stressed the following national projects: Preparedness: The Key to Opportunity of Our Future as Homemakers.

The delegates were selected on a quota basis. The general sessions were very interesting. Such people as Miss Mildred Reel, the National FHA Advisor from Washington D.C., Mr. Henry Schriver, a Farmer Philosopher from Grafton, Ohio, and Mr. Albert G. Isaac, from the Attorney General's Department in Lansing, were the speakers during the General Sessions on Thursday and Friday.

FFA - a contest of Skills

Last Saturday some of ag department went to the FFA Skills contest in Lansing. To qualify to go, the boys had to pass a test. This test determined who would be the best candidates for each contest. The three highest scores were chosen from each test. About 18 people went from LHS.

Mr. Johnson and the Future Farmers arrived at Lansing at 8:30.

Miss Majorette of Michigan Pageant

The Miss Majorette of Michigan Pageant will be held at Lakeview this Saturday, May 6, at 9:00 am. Along with this will be an open contest held for any twirlers throughout the U.S.A. This starts at 11:00 am. The winners from each divisions will twirl again in a twirl-off to find a Grand Champion for the day.

Thirty Lakeview girls are entering the open contest and ten girls will be running for Miss Majorette of Michigan. The girls will be judged on their twirling, strutting, and modeling abilities. The modeling includes beauty, poise, and personality. The awards ceremony for the titles of Miss Michigan Majorette's will start at 5:30 pm. Miss Farm Bureau Queen of Michigan, Judy Behrenwald, will be the Mistress of Ceremonies. Special guests will include the Western Michigan University Majorettes, who will be demonstrating their talents, and also last year's Miss Majorette of Michigan. This is the first time the pageant has been held at Lakeview. Come and support the Lakeview girls! The winners will go on to National Competition.

editorial: Here the New Editor Hath His Say "MAME!"; a true musical

At least once a year a miracle occurs at Lakeview. A group of hard-working individuals gets together, doles out about eight tons of blood, sweat, and tears, and...voilà! An operetta is born. 1972 was no exception. This year's offering, "MAME!", was the sixteenth in a (hopefully) never-ending line of presentations, all under the direction of Mr. E. Coon, who, for the past twelve years, has taken raw talent and whipped it into superb acting. In this case, "MAME!" was presented after seventy-eight regular rehearsals and who-knows how many noon hour and after school meetings.

Obviously, this number of rehearsals would cause some static from parents and teachers---no doubt enough to jam every radio station from here to San Francisco----but when that curtain pulls back and presents a wiped out millionairess in a cardboard moon knocking around a Broadway actress, a very pregnant secretary-nanny wandering around a party (with such yummys as pickled python and bees) calling for her calcium pills, a Southern colonel calmly letting his hands get cut to pieces by an inexperienced manicurist, his mother proffering a Southern Peach to a Northern alligator pear, a young lad with a notebook of very rich vocabulary, a Professor of the Laboratory of Life ("At our school we don't wear anything."), thousands of quick puns, high hilarity, and tons of talent, these hardships seem to dissolve into the woodwork and become a part of another world.

Who can say more than words?

Once again, Mr. Coon and the entire cast of "MAME!" have shown that those dissenters of the operetta have obviously never been to one.

feature: A WHAT in the Hand is Worth two in the Bush

"Good Morning, this is WHAT on the Air!" This is the familiar salutation given to you each morning at 9:15 a.m. by an experienced radio announcer. WHAT radio station is on the air and has been piped on the intercom waves of LHS for several weeks. The radio station began as the brain child of Mr. Ebeling and his Chemistry class, after complaints of dry and boring morning announcements. The class put their heads together and popped up with the brilliant idea for a Radio Station called W-H-A-T. (What?)

After the first few days of tape recorded sessions, the members of WHAT decided to do the program live. The original format changed several times, but now WHAT has established its program.

The atmospheric conditions are related to everyone by that charming duet of Bird and Worm. They chirp cheerily through the weather report written from weather instrument readings and information they heard (or thought they heard) on television that morning. (Actually Miss Bird and Miss Worm have better luck at forecasting than the professionals.

The exciting announcements are relayed to the listener by Kram and Yug. This dynamic duel with their brilliance for reporting the news would put even Chet and David to shame.

The sports report and commentaries keep the School up on the latest athletic

SPORTS: Baseball with Carson City

Last Friday the Lakeview Varsity Baseball team played Carson City Crystal. In a very well played game, our team won by a score of 13-3. The winning pitcher was Marty Morales. To show how well our team did, 8 of the 13 runs were scored in the first 3 innings of play, against last year's all conference pitcher from CCC. So if you want to see some more of this type of action, go and support our team at their games.

Ffa Contest ~ continued from page One

One of the contests was food science. The participants from Lakeview were Phil Temple, Rich Brown, and Rick Allen. They had to judge 14 samples of milk and 14 samples of strainers.

Another contest was the soil judging contest. Included in this were Scott Molitor, Mike Schnick, and Wade Chapin. They went to four different sites, judged four different types of soil.

Among the other contests were forestry, dairy showmanship and farm mechanics. To put it in the words of a future farmer, "there were millions of em!"

Kids from many various schools participated. There were more than 200 in some events. The boys got home Saturday afternoon around 3:30. The results of the contest were expected back Wednesday.

Chip Relays - Mt. Pleasant

Last Friday, Mount Pleasant was the roaring scene of the 1972 Chip Relays. Lakeview's track team had 15 guys competing in their specialized events. The Wildcats found the competition very rough and had only one team member, Wendell Marten, place. Wendell brought back a third place medal for the mile run with the time of 4:45.

The GAA!!

On April 26, GAA had its meeting. They have been meeting on Thursday's due to sports. They played dodgeball for recreation and in business they discussed the new officers that are soon to be elected. Good luck to future officers.

Each morning, before the station can sign off, Madame Trafalgar must be given equal time to make her predictions of the past. The Madame polishes her crystal ball every morning so she can try to see more clearly into the past.

WHAT is exciting (????) The pay is nil. But look at the recruits for the Chemistry Class next year.

"Well, that's the way it is," says our WHAT commentator, "W-H-A-T signing off. Good morning. (and the teachers sigh with relief).

3rd ACADEMIC BANQUET held Thursday

Thursday evening, May 11, the LHS cafetorium was the site of the third annual academic banquet. This event was sponsored by the Board of Education, Lakeview Community School, and the Lakeview Education Association to honor 28 seniors and 29 juniors carrying a grade-point average of 3.0 or above. The parents of the students were invited to accompany their children. Teachers and board members were also present.

This year's program began with a welcome from Mrs. Janet Johnson, who is president of the Lakeview Education Association. The invocation preceding the meal was given by Rev. Michael Anderson. A delicious meal was then served by several ninth and tenth grade girls.

Following the banquet, award certificates were presented by Mr. Ford, Kathy Schrieber, and Luann Ball.

The banquet speaker was Jeffrey Charnley. His talk was entitled "Who and why of higher education."

NUTS AND BOLTS

Last Friday, May 5, during noon and part of our fifth hour class, we were serenaded by the group Nuts and Bolts, Inc. We could have fun by dancing. The band comes from Greenville (all you Greenville fans can cheer). Comments varied from, "They're really neat." to "Take them back to Greenville where they belong."

SPANISH FIESTA

From six to eight p.m. Thursday, May 10, all students of the Spanish classes, their parents, and invited friends participated in a fiesta. Each student attending brought Spanish food which was enjoyed by everyone. Games, movies, and piñatas provided the entertainment.

FHA election of officers

On Monday, May 8, the FHA held a potluck supper for all FHA members and to install the new officers for 1972-1973.

Miss Freeland, one of our capable home economics teachers, gave a very interesting and informative talk on how to buy a bedspread, how to pick a house band, and how to plan a wedding. The talk was enjoyed by all.

Former president, Patty Johnson, installed Candy Johnson as the new FHA president for the coming year. Other new officers who were installed are: Nancy Jeppesen, vice president; Patty Johnson, secretary; Ann Charnley, treasurer; Jean Buskirk, points chairman parliamentarian; Karen Hubbard, historian-reporter; Karla Johnson, student council.

At the end of the installation, the new president, Candy Johnson, presented a thank-you gift to the club's advisors, Mrs. Darrow and Miss Freeland. The seniors in the group, Donna Hubbard, Luann Ball, Mary Youngman, and Sue Nelson, were also given gifts.

Judy Mitchell - 2nd runner up

War and Peace

Q What is our world coming to? Some of us live day after day in this world and don't even realize what is going on in this world. Men are sent everyday to fight for us and we don't even care. They suffer wounds and they watch their friends get blown to bits, but yet we couldn't care less. Some people say, "Let's stop this war," and then they go out and get drunk and get into fights and end up getting hurt. Is this really wanting to stop a war? If we wanted peace bad enough, we would have peace in our home first.

Peace is many different things. To me, Peace is getting along with others without having arguments. Peace is walking through a long woods listening to the animals talk back and forth. Peace is sitting by a river watching the water flow.

Peace is not watching people beat their kids for no reason at all. It isn't peace when our country is at war with other countries.

These are only a few things that describe peace, but anymore, there aren't too many things that really pertain to peace.

TRACK BLISTER with Greenville

The Lakeview track team was over powered by Greenville, here last Monday. Greenville took the meet by a score 89 to 34. Greenville captured first in 11 of the 15 events. First for Lakeview were E. Guthrie, shot put; C. Brown, high jump; C. Hauser, 440 yd. dash; W. Martin, mile run. This is the first time Lakeview has been defeated in dual competition this year.

After their defeat, Lakeview's trackmen have been working hard in order to do well in the Regionals which are tomorrow at St. Louis.

Baseball With Portland

The Varsity and JV baseball teams played Portland April 8, with the Varsity winning by a score of 9-5 and the JV's winning by a score of 6-3.

French Club at the Embers

Last Thursday, the French Club went to Ember's Restaurant in Mt. Pleasant, with the thirty nine members honoring Mrs. Gregg and Mrs. Green.

They met at the school at 5 p.m. and were off on their merry way, arriving for their dinner of Caesar salad, baked potatoes, pork chops, and dessert.

Baseball WITH CENTRAL MONTCALM

Both our Varsity and JV baseball players lost to Central Montcalm last Friday. Our Varsity players lost by a close score of 7-5 in a well fought game. The JV's lost in a closer game by a score of 1-0.

Well, what can you say but better luck next time and keep up the good effort.

ECOLOGY

Ecology seals featuring five sources of air pollution have been issued by the Michigan Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association in a campaign for funds to support its environmental activities. The campaign, which will coincide with Earth Day, has the dual goal of raising funds for the Michigan TB and Respiratory Disease Association and the Michigan Student Environmental Confederation.

The student organization has in its brief existence made a tremendous impact on environmental issues throughout Michigan, according to John Pettibone, president of the MTRDA. The group, which acts as a coordinating body for student environmental groups, has been quite successful in developing educational activities, conducting seminars, and lobbying for the passage of the Michigan Environmental Protection Act and the Clean Air Act, and working to defeat the SST. (con't. Next, Col.)

(con't. from last col.)

Last year, using a grant from the Michigan Department of Public Health, The MSEC and the Michigan TB and Respiratory Disease Association were able to employ 60 college and high school students to work on such projects as lead paint detection in the inner city of Detroit, rodent control, domestic air pollution, identification of abandoned auto hulks, and environmental mapping. This summer, the groups hope to have funds to employ even more students for summer work.

The ecology seals represent dangers to the environment from automobiles industry, open burning, and cigarettes. A large decal in the center of the sheet of seals bears the double-barred cross, the crusaders' symbol of the tuberculosis and respiratory disease association, and the theta, the environmentalists' warning of danger to the environment.

Students throughout the state are urged to support the environmental campaign by using seals and making a contribution to the Michigan Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association.

SENIOR STEAK FRY

The senior steak fry, in all its delicious splendor, happened last Saturday, May 13, 1972. Approximately 135 people partook of steak (surprise!), potato salad, baked potatoes with sour cream, and relishes such as celery and olives. They were practically up to their eyes in pies, so to speak. There was much food left over.

Mr. Leppink, Mr. Brockway, and Mr. Molitor cooked the food on equipment owned by the Lakeview Lions Club. Members of the teaching administration, the school board and their spouses, and certain parents were invited as chaperones. Music provided by the Able King, a four-man rock group, encouraged many seniors to get in the dancing mood.

A Paper Staff "Grand Finale"

The 'Grand Finale' for the Wildcat Chronicle will be the last two weeks of school when the Journalism students will be taking authority over Lakeview High School's newspaper.

The Chronicle coming out on May 26, will have no special theme, but will just be the prelude for journalism students to test the power and courage to hold up under the real thing, of rewriting stories, meeting deadlines and mainly satisfying the buyers.

The last Wildcat Chronicle of the year will have the theme "Flashbacks of '72." Featured in this newspaper will be pictures exposing special events that have occurred throughout the year.

These issues will be available the last two weeks of school. Be ready to see how the journalism students are on putting out the paper.

!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Friday's Assembly

Friday's short assembly was presented by the Lakeview High School Choir and directed by Mr. Terri Smith, one of our student teachers at Lakeview.

A few of the selections sung include "If I Ruled the World," "Battle Hymn of the Republic," and "Last Words to David."

Marcia Frandsen played the background music on the piano. Debbi Gage sang one of her own compositions, "His Love," and accompanied herself on the piano.

The song "You'll Never Walk Alone" was sung by the choir to Mr. Smith as a farewell from all the students at Lakeview High.

editorial:

A FAREWELL TO ARMS.

Somehow the newspaper staff has survived another year. How it is done is beyond my comprehension. The work going into one issue alone is monumental, and if this labor is brought up to the thirtieth degree, it will almost offset the total energy expended by the staff.

(Of course, as in all organizations, there are those who entered the Paper Staff just to get their names in the paper or pictures in the annual. They know who they are, sitting back with wry grins scratched across their gloating faces, so these comments are certainly not addressed to them.)

The work put forth certainly paid off. At the start of this year the paper was about a billion dollars in the red, or at least it seemed that much. Now that debt has been wiped out with even a little spending money to spare. Not bad for a five-cent publication, eh?

As far as the newspaper staff is concerned, this will be the last issue of the Wildcat Chronicle. What will appear in the next two issues---and there'll be plenty, I assure you---will be the work of the Journalism class, a fact for which this writer is extremely grateful, and no doubt others on the staff are as well.

Now, if you'll excuse me, I think I'll go home and slip into a dry martini.

Feature Story:Harvey Writes A Cook-Book

Harvey is a master-man-of-all-trades that has tried almost everything at least once. He has this time learned the trade of cooking from world famous cooks from all over the world. He has compiled this menu that is sure to give any meal a big boost. The only good way that there is to test these time tested delights is to follow the recipes that are given.

The menu is:

Jungle soup
Chef Salad
Creamed potatoes
Meatloaf and/or Pizza

The recipes are as follows:

JUNGLE SOUP

2 cups green swamp weeds
3 cups salt water
1 cup water
2 cubes of sugar
2 boullion cubes (beef)
Dry the weed for four days before using. Add weed to boiling water. Stir often. Mix boullion cubes and sugar with the water. Pour weed water ubto pot with other mixture. Serve hot.

CHEF SALAD:

1 head lettuce
1 each of radish, carrot, and tomato
1 fresh chef
Dice the ingredients until fine. Wear apron to prevent splatters. Toss in a large bowl. This recipe serves four people and a life term in a prison of your choice.

STUDENT TEACHERS of 1972

Mr. Namminga's second student teacher is Gary St. Onge. At present, he is teaching four classes. Book-keeping, Typing II, Office Practice, and General Business.

He is graduating from Ferris State College this year with a major in general business and a minor in social studies.

Mr. St. Onge likes his job here, and he will be here the rest of the year. He hopes to teach high school students next year, in the field of business.

When asked what he thought of the school, he replied, "I have enjoyed my teaching experience at Lakeview very much. It has been my pleasure to work with Mrs. Hachman and Mr. Namminga and it's also been a pleasure to work with some of the hard working dedicated students who have been in my classes."

A car wash and wax is scheduled for June 9 from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. in the High School parking lot. An out-of-school dance will be held Saturday, June 10, in the High School, from 8-11:30 p.m. Casual dress may be worn.

Please give your support to your local FBLA group.

Student Teachers 1972

Mr. Renee is a student teacher here at Lakeview. He is teaching two classes of 9th grade algebra, one with Mr. Wood, and the other with Mr. Jonaitis. He is also teaching a 10th grade geometry class with Mr. Boerma.

Mr. Renee went to Ferris State College and majored in math and minored in chemistry.

He hopes to teach in a high school chemistry class next year. He will finish school here this year.

When asked what he thought of the students, he said, "I like all the students. I haven't had any problems in class, but some of my students like to talk extra in class."

Men's Liberation

Women across the country and throughout the world are screaming for equality. However, there's another side of the question--what about the guys?

It's generally thought that, at regarding job, women get the short end of the stick; but this is not always true. At many jobs, as a waiter, for example, men get lower pay doing the same as women. How many men do you see as stewards on airlines? Or playboy bunnies? But that's another question altogether! Women are accepted at Yale; are men at Vassar? Until recently, only female applicants were accepted in the dental hygiene program at Ferris. If girls are allowed to compete in boys' sports, will boys be allowed in girls'? What will this do to the LOCKERROOMS?

Everybody knows the importance of jobs, but the fundamental right of freedom of choice is far more valuable. No one should be denied this, yet, from infancy, the guys are raised with the goal of eventually supporting a wife and family. The girls choose their own goals, and the choices are limitless.

As a third and final job, there's life. Believe it or not, all the little extra stresses men are subjected to add up. On the average, women live 6 years longer than men do. That take a trip.

On April 19, 1972, Mrs. Hachman, Juleen Stephens, and Rhonda Martin went to Greenville to a Photo-Journalism seminar.

They first watched some slides on different pictures during action of basketball, baseball, and other sport games. After the slides, questions were asked and answered. Mr. Ben Butler and Mr. Raymond of Greenville Printing Press were speakers. They explained about the layouts and bleeding of the yearbook pages. After this, doughnuts and pop were served as refreshments.

We were then called back and split up into two groups. One group stayed to learn about cameras, and taking pictures. The other group went into the dark room to learn how the pictures are developed and then blown up. When these groups were done, they switched and went to learn about the other.

The group was dismissed and got to look around the studio.

There were students, leaders, and advisors there from Central Montcalm, Lakeview, Cedar Lake Academy, and Greenville.

Mr Flower Demands Equal Rights

Hi there. I, in case you are wondering, am a flower. I just thought I would put that in because you are going to be reading my story, not listening to me tell my story.

I am a daisy. Everyday people walk by me and they say, "Oh, isn't that a pretty flower! I wonder what it would be like to have to be a flower and stand in all that dirt all the time."

Well, I am getting tired of hearing that same darn line, over and over, again and again, every single day. So I am going to tell you how I like being a flower.

It wouldn't be so bad if you people would watch where you walk. Let me tell you. That is really scary. I stand down here watching people hurry by, when along comes some dummy running his mouth, not paying attention to where he's going and POW! There goes my neighbor, or my friend from down the fence away. Why, just the other day I was soaking up the last of the water from that lovely little shower we had and all of a sudden! Why it scared me to death. All of a sudden, WHAM! There's a size ten foot just about one inch (in flower figures) from my bottom leaf. In human figures that would be about 1/8 of an inch. Now wouldn't that scare you?

And then there's always some joker walkin by complaining about how people treat him like dirt or spit in his face. Course, for you people that's just a saying. It really happens to us flowers. Some guy walks by and decides he is tired of the saliva in his mouth so he deposits it on my petals, hence bending them so far, I'd swear they are going to break off anytime. Course my buddy Tulips three fence posts down, has it even worse than I. A man that spit at him was chewing tobacco at the time. Hit him dead center too, poor flower. And then there's Roget, the dog that lives in the house on the lot where Tulip lives. Why that poor flower. Everytime that dog has to go to the bathroom, he heads right for that corner post and, well, we won't go into that. It's not very appealing. It is kind of fun to listen to him talk about it though. His stem turns such a dark shade of green when he's mad.

Well, as you have probably guessed, being a flower is about like being a person. We flowers have it a little worse but in general, things are OK. There are good things and there are bad things. My only remaining comment is, like I said, being a flower is OK but I sure would like to change places with that dog for one day. Boy, I'd show him.

Help Earth

Purchase liquids in reusable, returnable bottles whenever possible; Save aluminum cans and returnable bottles and bring them to recycling centers.

Use soap or low-phosphate detergents.

Instead of burning leaves or grass-cutting, make a compost heap. The decaying matter provides good fertilizer.

If your family owns a car, the use of lead-free gas and emission controls will reduce air pollution from exhaust fumes. Make sure the engine is not idling; the worst emission problems occur at this time.

Walk, ride bicycles, and use mass transit more often.

Find out what your city or town is doing in the field of Ecology, about waste disposal in both air and water. Complain to your local authorities about dirty or noxious smoke emission from factories and homes; and illegal burning of trash in the back yard.

Join local and national conservation groups.

Use no pesticides.

WHAT ECOLOGY MEANS TO ME

Judy Hubbard: Getting rid of pollution.

Mark Olsen: Perservation of nature, the way God intended.

Study HARD For EXAMS!!!!!!!

Students Learning to Save Lives

Summer is coming very soon and everyone is anxiously awaiting to go swimming, that is except five Lakeview students who are taking Senior Life Saving. Every Tuesday and Saturday since April, Marty Marshall, Dan Nelson, Dan Youngman, Barb Akroy and Becky Nelson have been traveling to Rockford in order to receive their Sr. Life Saving Badge. After completing the course they will be able to get jobs as life guards at beaches, pools, etc. They all plan, in the future, to go on and get their W.S.I. which will give them the right to teach swimming to others.

First Love

I recollect in early life, I loved the local doctor's wife.

I ate an apple every day To keep the doctor far away! Alas! He was a jealous man And grew suspicious of my plan.

He'd notice several pips about. When taking my appendix out (A circumstance that must arouse Suspicion in the blindest spouse.)

And though I squared the thing some how, I always eat bananas now.

"Wait for the Be-runs"

As many of you have undoubtedly noticed, especially if you keep up with your TV programs, Nixon and a few other presidential primary candidates have been braking into the middle of a lot of shows lately. And it's never a rotten show, it's always one of your favorite programs. Then, after they have disrupted everything, they tell what they think would work in ending the war or they spend 20 minutes telling why they think public busing should be banned? Or they cut into a movie just as the detective is preparing to unmask the murderer of that poor old lady over on 36th North Street and guess what! If you want to find out who the murderer was, you have to watch the whole movie again.

And have you heard the pitch they give you after they shot the plot in your favorite show? "The preceeding was brought to you through your generous donations so won't you please keep sending that money in to your favorite candidate!" Then your money goes into putting these men on television as many more times as possible. So, after they have asked you so kindly for your donations so as to bring their political announcements to you the public, through television, don't you think you better get out there and vote on Tuesday, May 16, in the Michigan primary.

"DON'T VOTE?"

V.R.

DON'T VOTE: What kind of a crack is that? A good one if you really care about your government and the people who make laws which you will abide by. Remember when you vote, don't vote for just anyone, so you can tell your friends and neighbors you voted. That's not doing anyone a favor. That's just stupidity. Remember before you vote:
(1) Find out the candidates' policies to see if you agree completely. (2) If you do not know the candidates' policies by election time and chose not to guess at one. Feel proud, because your non-vote is one point better than a guess vote.

Take me out to the Ball game!

The baseball team this year was very strong with a record of 15 wins and 5 losses as of May 23rd. The boys on the team had great desire to win and were good sports when they lost. There were eight home games and eight away games. Here are a list of the games played so far:

Fashions for all Seasons

On May 4, at 7:30 p.m.
the Home Economics Classes put on their second annual fashion show. The theme was "Fashions for all Seasons." About 50 girls and boys modeled their outfits.

All the Home Ec. classes worked very hard on preparing for it. Mrs. Darrow and Miss Freeland, with the help of the general
chairman, Mary Dietrick, made the show a success.

It was held in the cafetorium, the stage setting was used from the operetta,
"Mame".

The Senior Citizens were invited to attend the show, which only lasted about half an hour. For all the nervousness and butterflies before the show, it turned out good. The people enjoyed it and the boys and girls who modeled found out it wasn't all bad.

There were refreshments served afterwards.

AL UNSER

195 mph?

Al Unser came from a racing family. At an age when most kids still rode bicycles, the Unser brothers raced Model A Fords around a dirt track. Their father gave each of them a gallon of gas a day.

Al waited patiently while his older brothers went racing. One afternoon his parents walked into their back-yard garage in time to hear Al brag to his brothers: "You guys got nothing on me. I just ~~crashed~~ one." Ten year old Al had rolled the Model A on the dirt track. When he looked around and saw his parents, his face turned bright red.

In 1964 Al Unser won the Pikes Peak hill climb.
In 1965 Al went to the brickyard. Al however could not get his car up to qualifying speed. Later that day A. J. Foyt walked in the door and offered Al a ride in one of his backup cars. Al Unser finished ninth in sixty seven. Al finished second after a 24 minute pit stop and in 1970
Al Unser finished first even winning the vondrddion money.

Be sure to watch Al in the Indy 500 on Memorial Day.

Special Closing Issue

Highlights of '71-'72"

Class of "72"

The Senior started their last year off slowly. Some of the important things they did were to order their caps and gowns, and announcements. Around Christmas time the Senior keys and memory books came in that were ordered.

The best is yet to come. As the year wears on things start to pick up. Some students you hear say that they can't wait until they can be free from this place; while others make the statement that if you are going to talk about next year, I'll leave the room.

The Seniors picked up speed on May 13th at 7:00. They had a Steak Fry! After enjoying a meal of steak, potato salad, rolls, relishes, and coffee, tea, or pop, they celebrated with a dance and a band, "The Soul Generation." May 25th was the last day the Seniors had to report in for school. On May 27th at 8:00, all the Seniors were invited to attend the Junior Senior Prom.

The following night, May 28th, was baccalaureate. It started at 8:00, with the Seniors marching in while being accompanied by the juniors.

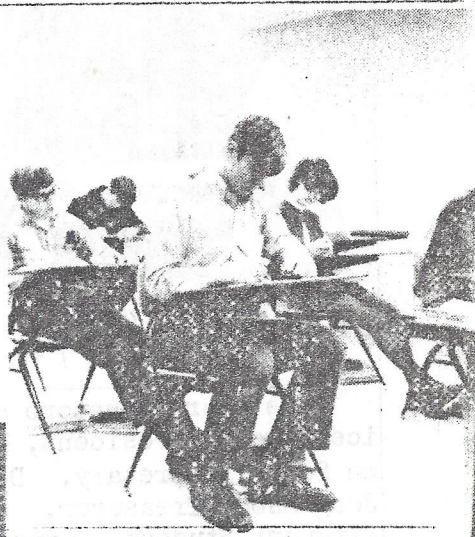

May 30th they were back at it again with class night, beginning at eight.

And June 2nd will bring it to a close. At 7:00 the Seniors marched in for the last time as a class. But it isn't really the end, it's just the beginning.

Junior's

The junior class had a car wash, sold wildcat pens, and a bake sale. They also put on the Thanksgiving dance at which the "Shades of Gray" played at. The juniors put on the annual Junior Senior Prom which was May 27th at 8:00.

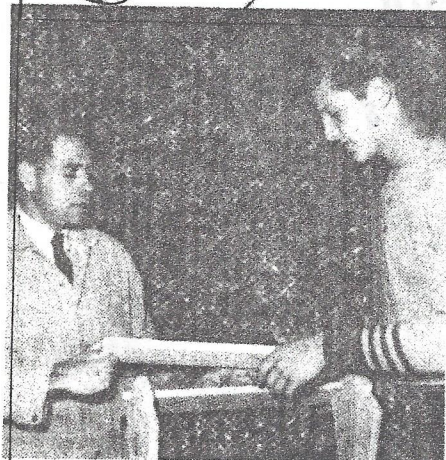

Junior's Make a Hit!

The junior officers consist of President, Val Sheler; Vice President, Eldon Young; Treasury, Sandy Austin; Secretary, Holly Stevens.

Sophomore's

Have a great year!

Sophomores '74

This year sophomore officers were: President, Ruben Solis; Secretary, Debra Jorgenson; Treasurer, Jeff Fitzner; Student Council, Gloria Shaw and Nate Golsby; Prince, Dan Scott; Princess, Mindy Moon.

To begin the activities during 1971-72 they ordered their class rings on September 29. After a long, straining wait they recieved them on February 16.

As a class party they chose to go to CMU, to watch a football game. This took place during the first semester. Next they put on the Sophomore Dance. As a band, they chose the Mission and their theme was "Physic Mission". Throughout the year two bake sales were held to earn a little extra money.

The sophomore track guys that came out on top were: Craig Brown, Pat Hillman both broke the record for the suttle and hurdle relay. Pat broke the record for the 440 relay team. Dan Scott, Gordie Olsen, were record breakers for the 4 mile relay team. Al LaShall, ran the mile. Nate Golsby ran the 220. Gordie Olsen, Dan Scott, Al LaShall were in the Cross Country.

In wrestling, Ruben Solis, won a couple of metals. Phil Temple and David Warner earned their letters.

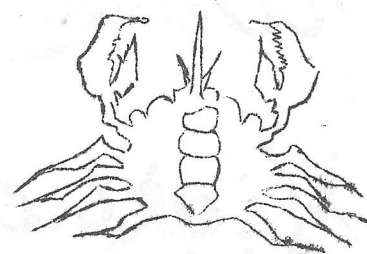

Nate Golsby got his varsity letter during golf.

The Sophomores that played in varsity football were: Pat Hillman, Craig Brown, Randy Jorgenson.

Judy Mitchell entered the Miss Majorette of Michigan Contest, May 6. She made second runner up and third in state. This is a great experience and any task for a sophomore.

GOOD-BY GENE!!

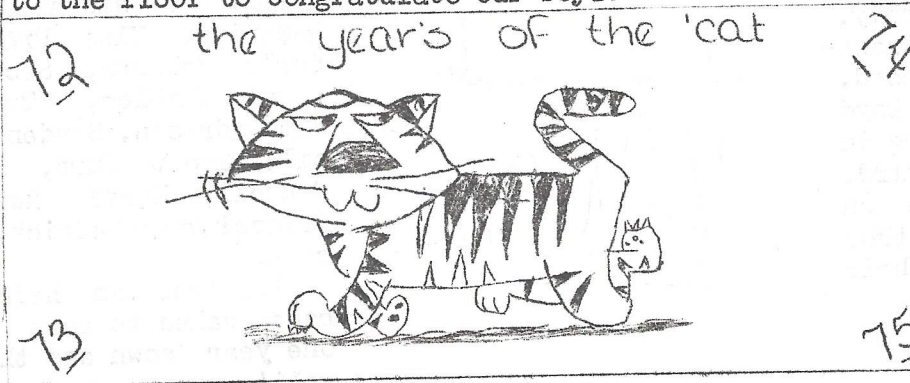

mustang-lakeview Game

The victory was the first one over Montabella for the Seniors on the team. On February 5, 1972, the Montabella Mustangs came to Lakeview to capture their sixth league victory. Instead, they had to travel back with a 78-75 defeat.

It seems like everybody was hot this night, but nobody was hotter than our Wildcats as they jumped off to 16-11 first quarter lead. The second quarter was a long one as the clock stopped many times because of the great number of fouls that were called, but the 'Cats stretched their half-time lead to 6 points, 38-32. Even though the 'Cats led at the half, many people in the stands were still non-believers, so when the 3rd quarter started, the Lakers stayed fired-up and kept even all the way.

The score going in the final stanza was 58-51 with the Wildcats still in the lead. Then came the 4th quarter and the lead dwindled to 3. People started thinking this was the end, that the 'Ponies would now run over our boys. We were still up by 3 and kept that lead until the buzzer sounded, as many people rushed to the floor to congratulate our boys.

"miss lakeview"

"Miss Lakeview 1972" will be selected July 14th at the Lakeview Middle School. Miss Lakeview will receive a rhinestone tiara, banner, flowers, and official portrait in addition to numerous gifts donated by the Lakeview businessmen. The 1972 queen will preside over the Tamarack Jubilee and will represent the community at many festivals throughout the year beginning with Greenville's Danish Festival and Cedar Springs's Red Flannel Festival.

The pageant is open to single girls, 16-21 years of age, living in the Lakeview Area School District. The girls will compete on stage in street wear and formal attire. Talent is not requested. Three professional judges will score each contestant on appearance, poise, personality, and natural beauty. Five finalists will be selected. Each finalist will receive an engraved silver charm. The top five girls will have short interviews on stage with the master of ceremonies, Andy Rent, WOOD TV and RADIO personality. The judges will again score each finalist to determine the 1st runner-up and queen.

Reserved tickets will go on sale prior to the contest. All parents or guardians of contestants will receive complimentary tickets.

Hairy Legs Contest

We couldn't review the year and leave out the Hairy Legs Contest. As you remember it was the F.H.A. that schemed up this leg pulling joke. Entered in the contest were ten contestants, consisting of ten of the faculty. The winner was determined by the students putting a penny, which equaled one vote, in the canister representing the pair of legs of their choice. The contest lasted a week and the results were given at the next pep assembly, where our proud, embarrassed winners were announced.

The winner was Mr. Boyd with Mr. Hondorp coming in second and Mr. Ford third. Their prizes were soap on a rope and all the other contestants received their picture back.

Freshman '75

The freshman class was all excited to start school in the new high school last fall. But after the first few days it wore off.

On February 5, they held their first class party of the year. It was a gym and dance party held in the gym. At 11:00 p.m. the athletic freshman returned home.

Then on May 24, the freshman went to John Ball Park. They left after school at 4 o'clock and returned home at 9 o'clock.

The officer's for the freshman class were Felix Perez, President; Marty Ramerize, Vice President; Karla Johnson, Secretary; Carol Mixhler, Treasurer; Jim Andreson, Student Council; Scott Jura, Student Council; Marty Ramerize, Prince; Terry Hedrick, Princess.

The freshman held some bake sales to earn money. One year sown and three to go!!!

ALL-SPORTS BANQUET

Varsity letter winners of the past year were honored at a banquet held Thursday, May 25, at the Lakeview High School Cafetorium.

A dinner of meat loaf, scalloped potatoes, sweet corn, cole slaw, roll and butter, and cake was served before everyone moved into the gymnasium for the presentation of awards.

First, the letter winners in baseball were presented by Coach Wood with the selection of John Garcia and Mike Lindsey as team captains. Next, Coach Skorka gave out the track awards to letter winners, record breakers, and Dan Nelson as team captain.

Arnold Hadley was lauded for his work for many years; as sports statistician. Mr. Cook presented him with a small plaque along with showing the large plaque being placed near the baseball field, naming the field "Hadley Field."

Mr. Elf J. Pedler, guest speaker, then addressed his audience and spoke on the determination all athletes must possess to be successful. The evening was concluded with basketball coach Gene Mount formally submitting his resignation.

entering the contest will be 9:00 p.m. June 23rd. If you have any further questions in regards to the contest, please contact Mrs. Michael Hondorp, queen committee Chairman.

"The Last Day of School" this year promises to be out of the ordinary. A new busing issue has arisen: no cool it, no ride. The traditional squirt guns and water balloons, a custom handed down from generation to generation, are all but banned on the buses. The traditional culture of American youth is being torn down before our very eyes! Egads! We're having our own establishment being torn down for a change.

Precious &
Few '72

On Saturday, May 27th, the Juniors put on the Junior-Senior Prom held in the High School Cafetorium at 8:00 p.m. The theme was Precious and Few and the band was the "Thresholds" from Grand Rapids. Refreshments were provided by the Junior Class. Everyone enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Their good time ended at 12:00 p.m.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

TO THE 1972 HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES:

Graduation is a time for celebrating because it marks the completion of the longest experience you have all shared: twelve years of education. But it is also a time of invitation, of looking toward tomorrow as well as reviewing the lessons of yesterday. It is a time to step back for a moment, and to ponder what the whole of your life might be.

At the beginning of this Nation the times were, in a sense, like today is for you. They were times of youth, of freshness and of opportunity. More than half the people in America were less than twenty years old. Jefferson authored the Declaration of Independence at thirty-three; sixteen other signers were in their thirties; and three were in their twenties. The young Nation and its youthful population were setting out together on a great new adventure.

Today we often hear it repeated that youth is the hope of the future. Yet, no matter how often it is said, it remains true. No previous generation of high school students has been so well educated as you. The America which you create can be a Nation even greater than your dreams -- if your wisdom and spirit equal those of the young patriots who first created this land.

I am confident about America's future because I am confident about you. Today, I congratulate you not only on your graduation, but also on the splendid opportunity you have, to help make this an even better land for yourselves and for all Americans.
